ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The present study was conducted under the supervision of Dr. Krishnapada Majumder, Head and Professor of the Department of Library and Information Science, Jadavpur University, and Dr. Ratna Bandyopadhyay, Reader, Department of Library and Information Science, University of Calcutta, West Bengal, India. I am deeply indebted and grateful to my supervisors for their utmost sincere interest in my intellectual development and professional guidance throughout this study. They went through the thesis at all stages and offered valuable comments, criticisms and a good number of suggestions for improvement in the framework of analysis, logic of argument as well as the style, presentation of thoughts and language. My sincere thanks to them is inestimable.

I am grateful to Late Professor Prabir Roy Choudhury, former Head of the Department of Library and Information Science, Jadavpur University, and former President, Bengal Library Association, Kolkata, West Bengal, India, for his encouragement and supports. He was the person who helped me a lot to get enrollment at Jadavpur University for this study.

I extend my gratitude to Dr. Nandita Bhattacharya, Principal Secretary, Faculty of Arts, Jadavpur University, Kolkata, West Bengal, India, for providing me administrative support and sincere cooperation in completion of this study.

I am especially thankful to Dr. S. M. Mannan, Professor and former Chairman, Department of Information Science and Library Management, University of Dhaka; and former Chairman, Bangladesh Association of Librarians, Information Scientists and Documentalists (BALID), whose untiring and sincere support and personal encouragement helped me make the effort fruitful. Dr. Mannan, in deed, worked as a local guide of my study.

I would like to express my gratitude to Mr. M. Shamsul Islam Khan, Head, Publications Unit, ICDDR,B, Mohakhali, Dhaka; and former President and General Secretary of the Library Association of Bangladesh (LAB), whose critical discussions, advice, and support with providing relevant information were always helpful. Mr. Khan also helped me in editing some chapters of this study.

I respectfully thank Professor Dr. Mohammed Farashuddin the Honourable Founder Vice-chancellor and Member, Board of Directors, East West University; and former Governor,
Bangladesh Bank, who permitted me to take up this study. I am also thankful to Professor Dr. Muhammad Musa, former Pro-vice Chancellor of East West University; Professor Dr. Md. Salehuddin, former Vice-chancellor, Sylhet Shahjalal University of Science and Technology, and former Head of the Department of Business Administration, East West University; and Professor A. Mannan, former Vice-chancellor, Chittagong University, and former Faculty of East West University; who encouraged me in many ways for this study. My sincere thanks to Mrs. Firdous Ali, former Registrar of East West University, who has supported me with her administration for this study.

My sincere thanks to Mr. M. Hossam Haider Chowdhury, Librarian, Independent University, Bangladesh; whose thoughtful suggestions, advices, constructive comments, and personal support helped me a lot in completing this study.

I am grateful to Dr. Nikhil Chandra Sarker, Librarian, Department of Public Libraries, Government of Bangladesh, for his suggestions, comments, and valuable support.

In pursuing this study, I had to depend on different national and international publications. I am indebted to the authors whose work I have used in this study.

I convey my heartfelt thanks to all colleagues of East West University Library, particularly, Mr. Abu Mohammad Jakaria, Assistant Librarian, who suggested and assisted me for this study.

I would like sincerely to acknowledge Ms. Sultana Nasreen Chowdhury, Senior Teacher, South Bridge International School, whose heartfelt support has made the research possible.

I gratefully acknowledge the patience and courtesies shown by the 140 users including 10 librarians responding to the lengthy questionnaire that generated useful and valuable data.

I am grateful to Mrs. Shipra Haider, my aunty, living in Kolkata, for offering best support to this study.

I am ever deeply indebted to my wife, and my beloved sons for their many sacrifices and sufferings caused by my constant and long absence during the period of my research. My wife Dilruba Khan, Senior Librarian, MDIC, deserves special thanks for her generous support and encouragement which eased my task immensely. Our sons Raiyan and Redwan merit appreciation for patience and understanding for missing my company during the concentration of my research.

Finally, I extend my gratitude and thanks to Mr. Wasim Avro, System Analyst, Dhaka, for all the assistance including data analysis required for this study, without which the thesis would not have taken the present form.
