ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Allah doth command you;
To render back your Trusts
To those to whom they are due;
And when ye judge
Between people that ye judge with justice:
Verify how excellent is the teaching giveth you!
For Allah is He Who heareth And seeth all things.

(Sura Al- Nisa: 58)

It is with profound sense of gratitude that I express my indebtedness to my worthy teacher and guide, Prof. Sheikh Mohammad Shafi, Head of the Department of Library and Information Science, University of Kashmir whose self-less guidance, steady supervision, sympathetic attitude, valuable suggestions, and above all friendly approach worked as a driving force which provided me with an insight into the subject of study without which the study would not have materialized.

In this effort respected Sheikh Mohammad Shafi, my mentor and me very often agreed to disagree, and it is that agreement to disagreement that made this work possible.

I am grateful to Prof. Wajih Ahmad Alvi, former Head of the Department, Library and Information Science, University of Kashmir, for providing me guidelines in the early stage of this research work.

My special and sincere thanks are due to Dr. Sameer Gul, Dr. Zahid Ashraf, (Teaching faculty K.U), Mr. Hanief (Research scholar, K.U), and visitors of the deptt of Library and Information science University of Kashmir for their support and positive criticism that enabled me to overcome many difficulties which I faced during the research period.

I also consider it my earnest duty to thank Julia O ‘Donell, editor AALL (American Association of Law Libraries) Chicago, USA and Savatri Devi, Documentation officer at ICSSR, New Delhi for sending me study material on Court Libraries which enabled me to complete this project.
Thanks are due to Mr. K.K Bhatti, Asst. Registrar Delhi High Court Judges’ Library, Mr. Haroon Rasheed, Asst. Registrar J&K High Court Judges’ Library, Mr. Zahoor Ahmad Khan, Chief Librarian J&K High Court Judges’ Library at Srinagar, Mr. Issaq Qadri, Advocate General High Court of Jammu and Kashmir and the staff of Indian Law Institute (ILI), New Delhi for their valuable suggestions and permission to benefit from the study material provided to me.

I must also feel obliged to Mr. Majid Jahangir lecturer on staff +2 wing Iqbal Memorial Institute boys and Mr Farooq Ahmad Peer H.O.D English Amar Sing college for providing inputs in case of language inspite of their busy schedule before it would see the light of the day.

My profound thanks are also due to Dr. Khursheed Ahmad Mir lecturer Amar Singh college department of statistics for his excellent and timely help in various statistical operations.

To my father, uncle and aunt I owe everything in life and I am thankful for their persistent encouragement, patience and cooperation in the course of the project in hand.
