Two people, my sister Smt. G. M. Saroja and my brother Sri. T. Sreenivas Reddy should be remembered always for making me to know the value of education at crucial stage of my life, because of which today I opted education based means of living. Without them my career itself is nomore and for them my sincere dedication.