ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I thank The Almighty who gave the strength, knowledge and grace to endower this task and also been kind enough to share the love and concern towards the Transgenders who are also the part of creation of the Lord.

It is with deep sense of gratitude, I would like to express my heartfelt and sincere thanks to Dr.Fatima Vasanth, my teacher and my Research Supervisor for all the guidance, support and advise rendered to me thus enabling my study to take its present shape.

My sincere thanks to the members of the Doctoral Committee. Dr.Thilakavathi and Dr.Raja Samuel for their wonderful support and valuable suggestions. I thank Prof. Xavier from the Department of Statistics, Loyola College- Chennai, for helping me with the statistical analysis of data. I thank the Management of Madras School of Social Work for giving me an opportunity to pursue my higher studies.

I express my deep gratitude to my colleagues Mr.V.Moses Selvakumar and Ms.A.Sathya who encouraged, helped and supported me at every face of my study. My special thanks to Mrs.Jayanthi Peter, HOD, M.A. HRM Department, MSSW for her concern and support during the journey of my study.

I am indebted to share my heartfelt gratitude to all the Transgenders and the organisations working for Transgenders who gave me an opportunity to understand their gender struggle, feelings and emotions and to stand along with them to challenge the issues preventing their empowerment through this study.

I thank all my friends and well wishers for their valuable support and guidance. I remember My Mother who always motivated me to pursue my higher education who is now with me only in spirit. My special thanks to My Husband Mr.Karunakaran and my sons Mr.Jeshurun and Mr.Joshua who have been very kind enough in helping at the various stages during the preparation of the study.
