Pursuing the Ph.D. degree was a challenging and fascinating process- a life changing journey- and writing this acknowledgement renders me an opportunity to convey my sincere thanks to all who helped me in this journey. But acknowledging the people who helped me in persuasion of this degree turns out to be a more challenging job, as I am indebted to so many people, who helped me in every sphere.

Firstly, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my supervisor Prof. Arabinda Bhattacharya. I am grateful to him for being my Teacher, Mentor, and my Guide. He has not only guided me in the process of this research, he turned me into a changed person. His commitment, his constant support, and his empathy eased the difficult moments that every life-changing journey carries. He introduced me to the world of research and provided me the eye to see to things and analyze. He provided me the courage, the power and ability to learn and as a fatherly figure, always protected me from the odds and stood by me in every difficult situation. I thank him for everything and also claim that I could not have a better teacher, advisor and mentor for my Ph.D. study.

I would also like to convey my sincere gratitude to Dr. Anannya Deb Roy, Associate Supervisor of my Ph.D. degree. Learning from him is a refreshing experience and will always be. He helped me in my work in every sphere. He is the person from whom I have learnt how to learn. As a knowledge seeker, I have seen great enthusiasm and thrust for knowledge in him, and he successfully instilled that in me. In every occasion he taught me, I learnt something new, and he answered all my queries in such a lucid manner, so that I can understand. Besides that he always rendered necessary help to me, beyond the scope of my study. I thank him for being so kind and understanding to me and for being such a great teacher.

Besides my advisor, I would like to thank the Prof. Sitanath Mazumder, and Prof. Anada Mohan Paul, for their continuous support and encouragement. I would also like to thank my friends and colleagues, supported me in my persuasion of this degree.

Last but not the least, I would like to thank my parents, for being there for me and supporting me from every aspect, my wife, for accepting all the odds and being kind and supportive in trivial circumstances, my Mother-in-law and my late Father-in-law, for encouraging me always, and my daughter, Aishanee, for providing me all the happiness and spirit to carry on.
