ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

When I look back, my life in CDS seems to be quite an eventful one. It was filled with moments of apprehension, excitement, tension, satisfaction, yes it was kind of mixed emotions. Now as I sit back and ponder, I realise the efforts rendered by many have made me richer, in many aspects and without whose help, this endeavour of mine would not have been fruitful. I sincerely extend my gratitude to...

Dr. Achin Chakraborty and Dr. Indrani Chakraborty, my supervisors. It was Dr. Achin who kept me going throughout. Participating in his thinking process and working along with him have taught me a lot and that has certainly left me more enlightened than before. Dr. Indrani was always there to provide valuable and timely suggestions and advice. I really enjoyed working along with both of them.

Dr. K.K.Subrahmanian who got me interested in the area. It was the discussions that I had in the initial time of my thesis which got me started.

Dr. Mohananpillai, Dr. K.P. Kannan, Dr. John Kurien, Dr. D. Narayana, Dr. N. Shanta, Dr. V. Santakumar, Dr. Pradeep Kumar Panda, Dr. Vijayamohan Pillai and Dr. Vikas Rawal for their valuable suggestions during my work in progress seminars or at some point of time.

Dr. Jos Mooij for the informal discussion I had with her during her short visit to CDS.

Pinaki whose timely interventions and suggestions which has certainly enriched my work.

My seniors Antony, Veeramani, Hari, Azeez, Parameswaran, Rathikanth, Subrata and Ranjan who at some point of time came to my help whether it be a doubt related to computer, handling data, providing valuable suggestions and so on. Or otherwise it may have been a mere gesture that enhanced my pace of work which tended to get slow many a time.

Kiran, Shabeer, Balaji and Indu for their company.

George, Rakhe, Poornima, Reji, Shaheena and Deepa whose friendship I really enjoyed. I owe George a lot, if not for him many a detail would have escaped my eyes. He was a constant help related to everything in computer. Above all, he remained a very good friend throughout. Rakhe, Poornima and Reji have left me with fond memories of the campus. The long chatting sessions that covered everything under the sky, the evening stroll and the occasional outings to town with all of them are something that I will cherish forever. Shaheena joined us in October and lost no time in becoming the inseparable member of our "gang". Deepa through her inspiring mails kept me on the track.

The entire library staff for helping me during my long search hours in the library particularly Shobha chechy, Anilkumar and Mollyaunty.

All my junior friends particularly Rakhee, Priya, Sajitha, Lakshmi, Gaurav, Mahendra Varmen, Rajesh and Shyjan for helping me at some point of time. Also to Sabitha who did her role in helping me to keep up with the pace by her occasional queries.

Amma, Achachen, Tom and Tessa for everything... It is not mere gratitude, but something much more, that cannot be expressed in words...
