ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I, first of all again express my deep sense of gratitude to my beloved Supervisor Dr. Srikanta Mishra, Reader and Head of the Department (Retd.), P.G. Department of Law, Sambalpur University, Jyoti Vihar, Burla. He is a renowned Scholar and is known for his academic contributions in the field of legal knowledge. He inspired me to take up this vary topic which is of inter-disciplinary nature. I do acknowledge his sincere academic contribution and co-operation as Supervisor of this work. I am also thankful to him for his inspiration to complete this re-revised thesis.

I owe my profound gratitude to Professor Dr. G.K. Rath (Retd.), P.G. Department of Law, Sambalpur University for his inspiring and co-operative attitude.

I express my sincere thanks to Late Dr. H.N. Pradhan, Ex-Reader Cum Principal of L.R Law College, Sambalpur for his sympathetic attitude, constant encouragement and for providing necessary facilities to complete the first thesis.

I shall ever remain indebted to late Professor N.L. Agrawala, Head of the Department of Commerce, G.M. College, Sambalpur and other respected teachers whose sincere encouragement was a tremendous moral support to me.
I also own immensely to Mr. U.L.N.Rao, senior Advocate, Hyderabad. While on an academic visit to Hyderabad I met Mr. Rao who extends all short of help for providing me required material during the course of study.

I am also very much thankful to Mr. Nabin Kumar Pradhan, IRS, Commissioner of Income Tax, and Mr. Srikanta Chatterjee, IRS, Commissioner of Income Tax, who always find time in spite of their busy schedule to discuss about the finer points whenever I need their help. It is only through them I got an opportunity of access to the library of National Academy of Direct Taxes, Nagpur, which helps me to gather so many invaluable materials for the present work. My heart felt thanks to them for their inspiration, co-operation and academic contribution.

I am also very much thankful to the Librarian Mr. Akhil Kumar Patnaik and Mr. Jayprakash Panda and other staff of the library of L.R. Law College who extends their kind cooperation to me. Without their help it was not possible to complete the present re-revised thesis. I am thankful to the librarian and the staff of the Bhubenswar Behera Central Library, Sambalpur University who helps me whenever I visit the library. I also express my thanks to the office members of the P.G. Department of Law and Law Seminar Library who have rendered great assistance to me in process of the collection of materials. I am also thankful to the librarian of the Sambalpur Bar Association who extends all short of help and cooperation to complete the present research work.

Nothing, however, could have been achieved without the active and constant support and cooperation from members of my family. My beloved father Late Sudam Chandra Dash, who is no more and brother Sri Motilal Dash who are also Advocate and Taxation expert of repute inspired me immensely by guiding me and reduced my academic burden by doing my daily work which were otherwise done by me. My eldest brother Sri Nandalal Dash who has just retired from service as a Judicial Member, Income Tax Appellate Tribunal, academically helps me a lot. My father till his last breath was always an inspiring figure who till last share my family burden so that I could devote time to complete this thesis. I have no words to express my gratitude to my revered mother Mst. Bhagabati Dash, wife Bijayalaxmi (Minu) and two children Ruchika & Purnima (Payal) who totally merged their joy into mine. Without the cooperation of each one of them it would not have been possible to complete my present research study. Any thing done or achieved is therefore attributed as much to them as to me.

I will be failing in my duty if I will not mention the name of Late Narasingha Maharana typist who type and retype my rough re-revised thesis time and again in our computer several times with a smiling face. I owe immensely to him.
It will be gross injustice if I fail to mention the name of Shri H.K. Chawda, who typed out the entire re-revised thesis with a smiling face inspite of his busy schedule. He has always volunteered to share my burden. I also owe him immensely for his outstanding, timely contribution.

Last but not the least, as per the direction of the examiner, I am herewith submitting my re-revised thesis.

I feel heavily indebted to express my most sincere thanks to all those who have helped me in one way or the other in the completion of the academic endeavour.
