ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is my pleasant duty to acknowledge my deep sense of gratitude to my revered teacher Dr. S. C. Behera, M.A., Ph.D., Professor and Head of the Department of History, Sambalpur University, under whose supervision and guidance I have written this dissertation. He has rendered his valuable assistance in every step in the composition of this thesis without which it would have been extremely difficult for me to complete the work.

I am very much grateful to Dr. S. C. Panda, M.A., Ph.D. and Dr. C. R. Misra, M.A., Ph.D., Readers in History, Sambalpur University for their valuable suggestions, inspiration, co-operation and timely help for the completion of this thesis.

I am also very much thankful to Dr. H. K. Parija, M.A., Ph.D., Lecturer in History, Rajdhani College, Bhubaneswar, who extended his unstinted co-operation to me in more than one ways.

Thanks are very much due to Dr. Lakshana Kumar Panda, Reader in History, Vikram Dev College, Jeypore, who has supplied the photographs of the images of Sapta-Matrikas of Simhanatha which have been utilised by me in this dissertation.
