ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It is inevitable that thoughts and ideas of other people draft into the subconscious when one feels to acknowledge the service rendered by all those who have helped in the preparation of this Thesis.

I express my deep sense of gratitude to, Prof. N. Vijaya Ratnam, M.Com, Ph.D, the Department of Commerce & Business Administration, Acharya Nagarjuna University my Research Director and mentor but for whose constant encouragement and pains taking efforts, the outcome of this dissertation in the present form could not have made possible at all. I take this opportunity to thank him immensely for his help all through in the process of completion of my Ph.D work. It is both my pleasure and a bounden duty to acknowledge with all humility my grateful thanks and indebtedness to him.

I also express my deep felt gratitude to beloved Vice-Chancellor, Prof. K.V. Rao, Acharya Nagarjuna University, Prof. V. Chandra Sekhar, Dean, Faculty of Commerce and Management Studies & Principal, University College of Arts, Commerce & Law, and Prof. Noor Basha Abdul, Prof. S. Vijaya Raju, Prof. G.V. Chalam, Chairman, Board of Studies in Commerce & Management Studies (PG), Acharya Nagarjuna University, Dr. R. Sivaram Prasad, Coordinator, Department of Commerce & Business Administration, Prof. P. Koteswara Rao and Prof. T. Umamaheswara Rao (Retd), Prof. G. Prasad (Retd) whose constant cooperation and encouragement helped me to go ahead with this endeavour.

I am very much thankful to Dr. N.Venkateswara Rao, Special Officer, Acharya Nagarjuna University Ongole Campus, for his constant encouragement, and Dr. R. Anne Margaret, Sr. Lecturer, ABM Degree College, Ongole for help in the completion of this work.

I thank the librarian and members of staff of Dr. B.R. Ambedkar Memorial Library, Acharya Nagarjuna University for their invaluable assistance by way of providing me an opportunity to refer the relevant books, journals and go through the available material.

I am also thankful to Sri. P. Anjaiah, Ex. Director, APSPDCL, who initially advised me take up this subject on electricity followed by great help from Sri. T.
Haranatha Rao, Superintending Engineer, APSPDCL, Prakasam District, Ongole, who obtained permission from the Chief Managing Director APSPDCL, Tirupathi to carry out this work. I am grateful to thank the Corporate Office to grant me permission. And I am also thankful to Sri. T. Srinivasa Rao, Divisional Engineer, Operations, APSPDCL, Ongole for helping me to obtain primary data.

I am deeply indebted to various officers and staff of APSPDCL, Tirupathi and division employees of Prakasam District for providing me the necessary data.

It’s a feeling of honour and pride to express my heartfelt gratitude to my parents Sri. B. Subba Rao and Smt. B. Indira Vathi.

I am also thankful to my brother, Mr. B. Maruthi Srinivas Rao, and my sister, Miss. B. Srilakshmi and my nephews B. Narayana and B. Ashok for their helping throughout this research work.

I am very much thankful to all those who helped me directly and indirectly for completion of my research work.

Finally I thank all the respondents for their generosity in giving information relating to my questionnaire as and when necessary.