ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The essence of all beautiful things is gratitude. Thankfulness is the beginning of gratitude. Gratitude is the completion of thankfulness. In this highly complex society no work can be accomplished by a single individual but it needs inspiration and sincere gratitude of intellectuals as well as the grace of that Almighty. I offer my prime heartfelt salutations to the “God Almighty” the supreme and merciful, bestowed me with His blessings, and endowed me with strength and fortitude. Dear god I am thankful to you for your presence and enviable company as my parents who encouraged me to undergo higher studies. Their selfless persuasion and sacrifice, heartfelt blessings and firm faith has made this manuscript a remuneration to translate their dreams into reality. Without them I am nothing to this world. There is nothing more wonderful than the love and guidance a grandparent can give his or her grandchild. Grandparents sort of sprinkle stardust over the lives of little children. I emphatically extend my loyal and venerable thanks to my superpowers, for bestowing their never ending blessing and love to me since the day I was born.

The dream begins with a teacher who believes in you, who tugs and pushes and leads you to the next plateau, sometimes poking you with a sharp stick called truth. With an overwhelming sense of legitimate pride and genuine obligation, I express my deep gratitude to my supervisor Dr. C.P. Kala, Assistant Professor, Department of Ecosystem and Environment Management, Indian Institute of Forest Management (IIFM), for his scientific acumen and impeccable guidance in the conduct of this research work. I shall ever be indebted to him for developing in me the desire to work hard through this valuable suggestions and appreciable humanitarian behavior which evoked in me the be-stir to achieve the destination successfully in spite of all my lapses. I am thankful to him for reviewing my thesis drafts several times and also providing comments and suggestions to ensure timely completion of thesis. I thank him for his invaluable guidance, painstaking efforts, deep scientific vision, constant encouragement, solid suggestions and supervision throughout the course of research and during the preparation of the thesis.

This thesis represents not only my work, it is a four and half years of commitment, at IIFM and specifically with the Department of Ecosystem and Environment Management. My experience at IIFM has been nothing short of amazing. Since my first day during the course work started by September 1st, 2012 I have felt at home at IIFM. I have been given unique opportunities and taken advantage of them. Through these years I have learned that humans have potential to do lot many things, only need is to recognize it and use it when required. This thesis presents all the lessons learned from the institute. My sincere thanks and heartfelt special recognitions are due towards Dr. G.A. Kinhal, Director (2013-2016) and Dr. Anil Kumar, Director (2016 onwards) IIFM, Bhopal for their guidance, suggestions and encouragement during the various stages of the current study.

I emphatically extend my deep sense of gratitude and personal regards to Dr. Ram Prasad, IFS (Retd.), (External Expert I) and Dr. K.P. Sahu, Professor, Botany Department, MVM College, Bhopal (External Expert II) for their ever available help and valuable suggestions during the research work. I take this opportunity to convey my sincere thanks to Dr. Suprava Patnaik, Professor, Department of Ecosystem and Environment Management, IIFM and also, the Nodal Officer, Chairman Research Advisory committee, Forest Research Institute University, for her counsel and cordial help so generously provided throughout this period.
It is my privilege to express my revered sense of gratitude to Dr. Shaibaz Ahmed (CWLW, Madhya Pradesh), Dr. Advait Edgaonkar (Assistant Professor, Internal Expert), Dr. C.V.R.S. Vijaya Kumar (Associate Professor, Department of Information Technology and Quantitative Techniques, Methodology expert), of my research advisory committee for their ever available help and valuable suggestions during the framework of research work and analysis of the results followed by compilation of thesis. I sincerely thank institute’s authorities for providing academic assistance and other infrastructural facilities to carry out the present study. No expression of gratitude and indebtedness will be sufficient without mentioning the Faculty, IIFM, for their moral support, encouragement and elderly advice which helped me to achieve the destination successfully. Special thanks to Ms. Asha Khanna (Lecturer, Department of Information Technology and Quantitative Techniques), Capt. Anil Khare (IFS, Associate Professor), Dr. Parshant Jadav (IFS/Professor), Dr. Arvind Bijalwan (Assistant Professor) and Dr. A.K. Dharni (IFS, Professor) for their teachings during the course work period in the institute.

My research days, apart from field work, were very well spent in the Institute Library. I sincerely thank all the library staff for providing every possible help for the literature survey with ample of books, journals and online browsing. I will be failing in my duty if I do not extend sincere thanks to the worthy Computer Centre, Mrs. Seema Jain, for the help and technical assistance during the research period. I am grateful for the logistic support by the Institute during the course period as well during the field work of research by providing hostel and mess service. With regard to this I am highly thankful to Dr. A.K. Dharni and Dr. K.K. Jha for providing peaceful stay in the Aravali Girls Hostel, during the research period. I wish to thank FRJ cell in IIFM, for providing all possible help and support during the research work. Special thanks to Sh. D.K. Hotta and Sh. Ram Babu, for their full cooperation in dealing with official work of the FRJ University and helping me on time submissions of progress reports as well as pre thesis seminar. I would extended my sincere thanks to Forest Research Institute University, Dehradun for the course provided at different research institutes in the country.

I sincerely thank Sh. R.K. Gupta (PCCF, Himachal Pradesh) and Sh. A.K. Gulati (CWLW, Himachal Pradesh) for giving permission to work at Dhauladhar Wildlife Sanctuary, District Kangra. Sh. Amitabh Gautam (CF, Dharmsala Circle, Himachal Pradesh), Dr. L.C. Patial (HPFS, Retd.), Sh. B.S. Yadav (DFO, Palampur) and Smt. Basu Kaushal (DFO, Dharmsala, Himachal Pradesh) for the constant appreciation and encouragement, during the collection of data. Sh. Ajay Sharma (RFO, Dharmsala), Sh. Sushil Kumar Guleria (RFO, Wildlife, Bir, Himachal Pradesh), Sh. Krishan Chand (RFO, Bir, Himachal Pradesh), Sh. Naresh Sharma (RFO, Shahpur, Himachal Pradesh) who showed faith in me especially at the forest survey and also provided a wonderful living space in different area of the district Kangra.

I would like to thank Jagesaro Devi ji, Ratti Singh ji, Kafu Ram ji, Madan Kumar ji, Veena Kumari ji, Kapoor Singh ji, Swaroop Kumar ji and Kailash ji for their hospitality and support especially at the time of my data collection. Special thanks to Jagesaro Devi ji and family, for giving me a space to stay for long duration in the course of field work at Rajgundha village. All these deserve special mention for upgrading my field knowledge and making me smile always.

I am grateful to Department of Statistics (Dharmsala), Meteorological Department (Shimla), Himachal Pradesh Agriculture Department (Shimla), ISM Jogindernagar (Mandi), IIFBT (Palampur), CSKHPKV (Palampur), IIT Madras (Library) and Forest Department (Dharmsala circle) for providing me suitable secondary data required for the study. I would like to thank Mr. Kunal Sood and Aditya Rana for helping me in creating maps.

My interaction with IIFM colleagues and friends, Raashee Abhilashi, Mili Ghosh, Nishtha Tripathi, Sarath Ali, Suvati, Ritu, Nivedita, Smita, Pragati, Prerna, Suvendu, Nershun, Ashutosh, Shantanu, Anirudh, Ankj, Praveen, Rashidhar, Komal, Amit, Ankur and Jayati for their cheerful company and all academic support. I would like to thank Mili Gosh for her support and understanding as a room partner during the course work. Her support during all ups and down is highly acknowledged and Sarath Ali for her suggestions in data analysis, processing of thesis draft, review of the thesis and understanding me, which made my stay peaceful and joyful at IIFM.

I wish to thank my local guardians Sh. Rakesh and Smt. Shashi Sharma, Sh. R.P. Sharma, Smt. Shashi Sharma, Mr. Mousam, Mrs. Nidhi and Kuhu for their love, care and providing me best suitable help and comfortable stay at their home. I would like to thank my seniors Mr. D.N. Singh, Mr. Anuj, Ms. Anoma Basu, Ms. Kalpana, Ms. Atri Shaw and Dr. Vivek Garg for their encouragement and support throughout my research period. Also, I wish to thank my juniors for the motivation and support during this period. A good friend is a connection to life - a tie to the past, a road to the future, the key to sanity in a totally insane world. I feel very lucky to be blessed with Prerna Sharma, Damanjeet, Vidyalakshmi, Navkiran, Tanvi, Sudha, Priyanka Singh, Rishi, Pankaj, Navdeep, Rupinder, Neeraj, Sumit pratap, Sheetal, Gursharan, Ritu, Rimzim, Sapna, Alpy, Monika, Akanksha, Neha, Pooji, Bhawna, Vrushali and all other friends who supported me every second emotionally and morally, who were always patient to hear my woes and bring so many smiles on my sad face.

Now, I owe my deep sense of gratitude to most important peoples in my life my parents, family, cousins and my beloved extended family. I would like to thank all my family members and cousins for their support and encouragement. I owe all achievements of my life including this thesis to my parents. My father (Sh. S.P. Sharma) is the person who put the fundaments in my character, showed me the joy of intellectual pursuit ever since I was a child and helped me in developing the research plan. This thesis was his dream which I made fulfilled today. There is no greater heaven the heart of a loving mother. Thanks Maa (Smt. Suman Sharma) for the care and gentle love. My special and never ending thanks and love to the extended family, my father in law (Sh. M.C. Sharma) and mother in law (Smt. S.C. Sharma) for their benevolent advice, support and belief in me and my work. Thanks to my elder brother, Sachin and Sister in law, Krishika for being supportive and caring and my younger brother Rajat for motivating me at every point. Without their benevolent advice, sacrifice, blessing and encouragement, this treatise would have remained an ambition.

At last but not the least, I thank my husband, Kunal Mani Dogra, for the encouragement, ideas, data entry, funding, reviewing of thesis, companionship, support, help and love at every phase. This research is as much his as it is mine.

Needless to say, all omissions and errors are mine.
