ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Success is the continuously progressing realization of worthy goals. Many able and learned people fail to achieve goals they decide because they have not been properly guided. The successful achievement of the goals entirely depend on the moral and intellectual support, guidance and encouragement received from the research guide. I express my gratitude and profound indebtedness to my respected research guide Hon. Dr. K.G. Bothara, Professor in Pharmaceutical Chemistry, for his invaluable guidance, critical evaluation of my research work, constant encouragement and timely useful advices. I am highly honored to work under such an eminent, respected and genius person whose wisdom, intellectual power and caring attitude helped lot to improve my research skills. I am very much thankful to him for showing me right path and vision that research is all about enthusiasm, keen observation, a good thinking and analyzing capability, creativity and most importantly the patience. These peculiar qualities of his personality have helped me completing this research project to a very sufficient depth and within time limit. Without his advises and critical comments from time to time I would not have completed this research and thesis work within the stipulated time frame. I express deep sense of gratitude for my research guide.

I am indebted to my research co-guide Dr. R. K. Nanda, Professor in Pharmaceutical chemistry, a person with very soft nature, constant motivation selfless encouragement, precious suggestions and making me learn that “Research is doing what everyone has done but thinking what nobody has thought of ”. I am thankful to him for being a constant source of inspiration and support in all my endeavors.

I am sincerely thankful to Prof. (Mrs.) A. R. Madgulkar for unflinching support and all sorts of co-operation extended by her in completion of this project, when she was vice-principal and even now when she is Principal. Only because of her concrete support we could reach this stage. She is not only Principal, but my philosopher too. Heartfelt thanks to Dr. Ashwini R. Madgulkar.

I am grateful to Dr. G. M. Bhopale, Head, Research and Development, Hindustan Antibiotics Ltd., Pune for providing requisite infrastructure, state of the art facilities and excellent working environment to carry out this research work. His attitude and friendly approach made my tenure in this institute as a pleasant and homely experience.

I express my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. V. M. Kulkarni, Emeritus Professor in Pharmaceutical chemistry for introducing and guiding me in the area of computer aided drug design. The comments, affectionate guidance and time given by him clarified uncertainty and greatly improved my research capabilities. I am very lucky to have routine interactions with such an internationally renowned personality in the field of CADD research. I thank my guide Dr. K.G.Bothara for introducing and giving me opportunity to interact with highly respected Hon. Dr. V.M.Kulkarni sir, without whose blessing, support and motivation, I would not have been able to reach to the depths of CADD studies presented in this thesis.

My special thanks to my dear colleagues - Mr. Santosh Gandhi, Mrs. M. C. Damle, Mrs. Trupti Chitre, Dr. Neeraj Vyawahare, Mr. Sanjay Kshirsagar, Dr. M.R.Bhalekar, Mrs. M. R. P. Rao, Mrs. Sheetal Patil, Dr. M.K.Kathiravan, Mr. P.B.Deshpande, Mr. Ajay, Mr. Mithun, Mr. Rahul for continuously encouraging me to excel in research and all possible fields.

I extend my sincere thanks to Mrs.S.H.Rao, Mrs. Reshma Mirajkar, Mrs. Pradnya, Mrs. Kalyani mam and all my colleagues for their valuable help to carry out pharmacological screening besides their hectic schedule.
I express my sincere thanks to an eminent scientist, Dr. R.D. Joshi and Dr. (Smt.) Joshi for their selfless, continuous help and motivation.

My cordial thanks to Mr. Shishupal Sir, for spectral NMR Facility, Department of chemistry, University of Pune, Pune for getting $^1$H-NMR, Mass spectral analysis done.

I am also thankful to Dr. Dilip Wani, Medicare Pathology laboratory, Pune for histopathological studies of synthesized compounds.

I am also thankful to the library staff of NCL, Prof. Bali and his colleagues and library staff of AISSMS college of pharmacy, Mr. Mahesharao Chopane, Mr. More, Mr. B.G. Gaikwad and Mrs. Jadhav, Mr. Vilas Kelsarkar, Mr. Ajay Kolambe, Mr. Raju and Gopal Chingale, for their kind help and support. I am also thankful to Mr. Ajay, Gopal, Raju, Manohar, Dattatray and Mr. Vilas and Mr. Sachin Kasabe for their concern.

Friendship is a treasured gift and fine friends are very few. I express my immense thanks to all my dear friends, philosophers and well wishers; Santosh, Sachin, Vipin, Sanjay and Mangesh, Pramod, Sachin, Santosh, Dr. Anil, Dr. Dinesh, Dr. Subhash, Mr. Pravin, Mr. Pankaj, Mr. Ashutosh, Mr. Onkar and Mahesh, Mr. Kaustubh, Mr. Ajay, Mrs. Lokhande to list a few; who have directly or indirectly helped in the completion of this mighty research work.

My special thanks to one of my favourite students Aniket Pradeep Sarkate. I am very thankful to my dear students, Jinish, Mayuresh, Suraj, Ajit, Vyankatesh, Chetan, Sudarshan, Veena and Sandeep, Poonam, Gauri, Bhagyashree, Chintamani, Vijay for their support in all possible ways without whose help, this work would have been probably delayed.

I have no words to thank my parents Aaha and Mai, because of whom I am here in this world, who did everything possible and impossible for me. My sincere thanks and salute to my beloved and most respected and honored person in the society; my father in law Bapusaheb Mr. Uttamrao Narayanrao Desale, without his blessings I would not have been able to reach this stage. My sincere thanks to my beloved and caring and affectionate mother in law Mrs. Mangal mai U. Desale for all kind of blessings and support. I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to my dearest, caring and beloved and most caring and one of the best woman in the world, my wife, Urmila alias Priya, my Gorgeous lovely Kids, Sneha and Sahil, brothers Laxmikant, Avinash and brother in law, Ulkesh, my sister Kranti alias Tina family members Mrs. Manish bhandari, Mrs. Anita Bhandari for their understanding, patience and all kinds of support during the course of study.

Lastly, I am thankful to all those who have directly or indirectly extended their help towards this project.

I strongly believe, that "Success is a blend of smart work and destiny" and I thank God who has perpetually patronized me with consciousness and good enough understanding to love all and in turn climb the ladder the success taking everybody with me.
