Contents

Preface ................................................................. i-ii
Acknowledgement .................................................. iii-iv

Chapter–I
INTRODUCTION ...................................................... 1-26
1.1 Background And Status Of Different Refugee Groups
1.2 Definition of Refugee
1.3 Conceptual Framework
1.4 Legal Framework
1.5 Administrative Framework
1.6 Role of NHRC and Judiciary
1.7 India and UNHCR
1.8 Significance of 1980
1.9 Objective of the Study
1.10 Methodology of the Study

Chapter–II
PERCEPTIONS OF THE SUCCESSIVE GOVERNMENTS TOWARDS THE BANGLADESHI REFUGEES 27-68
2.1 Latest Perceptions of Government of India Towards the Refugees
2.2 Foreigners or Bangladeshi Refugee Issue in North-East
2.2(i) The Foreigners or Refugee Issue in NEFA/Arunachal Pradesh
2.2(ii) Policy Perceptions of the Successive Central Governments Towards the Refugees
2.2(iii) The Foreigners or Refugee Issue Under Arunachal Congress Apang Administration
2.3 Foreigners or Bangladeshi Refugee Issue in Tripura
2.3(i) Rehabilitation of Bangladeshi Refugees.
2.3(ii) Bangladeshi Refugees and Left Front Governments.

2.3(iii) The Refugees' Repatriation to Bangladesh (1982-1996)

2.3(iv) The Refugees' Repatriation to Bangladesh (1997-1998)

2.4 The Foreigners or Refugee Issue in Mizoram.

Chapter-III

PERCEPTIONS OF THE SUCCESSIVE GOVERNMENTS ON SRI LANKAN TAMIL AND TIBETAN REFUGEES 69-112

3.1 Sri Lankan Tamil Refugees: Background

3.2 Sri Lankan Tamil Refugees in Tamil Nadu

3.3 Sri Lankan Tamil Refugees and Indian Politics

3.4 Sri Lankan Tamil Refugees—Militancy (LTTE) and Security Implications of the Refugees

3.5 Sri Lankan Tamil Refugees and Policy Perceptions of the Government of India

3.6 Tibetan Refugees: Background

3.6 (i) Position and Status of Tibetan Refugees in context of Sino-Indian Relations

3.6 (ii) Debates on the Refugee issue in Parliament

3.6 (iii) India's Tibetan Policy: A Critical analysis

3.6 (iv) Perceptions of the Tibetan Government in Exile Towards India

Chapter-IV

PERCEPTIONS OF THE SUCCESSIVE GOVERNMENTS TOWARDS OTHER REFUGEES AND UNHCR 113-149

4.1 (i) Bhutanese Refugees: Background, Position and Status

4.1 (ii) India’s Policy

4.2 (i) Burmese Refugees: Background, Status and Position

4.2 (ii) India’s Policy Towards the Refugees in North-East

4.2 (iii) Policy Perceptions of the Central Governments Towards the Refugees
4.3 (i) Afghan Refugees: Background
4.3 (ii) Policy Perceptions Towards the Refugees
4.4 (i) Status and Role of the UNHCR: Legal Background
4.4 (ii) Objective of the UNHCR
4.4 (iii) Background of the UNHCR
4.4 (iv) Present Role of the UNHCR Towards the Refugees
4.5 (i) Refugees and India’s Security
4.5 (ii) Involvement of the Refugees with secessionist movements.

Chapter-V
PERCEPTIONS OF THE MAJOR OR NATIONAL POLITICAL PARTIES ON THE REFUGEES
5.1 Nature of Political Perceptions and the Refugees
5.2 Perceptions of Congress, BJP and the Left
5.2 (i) Ideological Stand of BJP
5.2 (ii) Policy Perceptions of BJP
5.3 (i) Ideological Stand of Congress
5.3 (ii) Policy Perceptions of Congress (Nehru-Rajiv)
5.3 (iii) Policy Perceptions of Congress (Rao –)
5.4 (i) Ideological Stand of Left Front
5.4 (ii) Policy Perceptions of Left Front (1947 –1980s)
5.4 (iii) Policy Perceptions of Left Front (1990s)

Chapter VI
PERCEPTIONS OF THE REGIONAL OR SMALLER POLITICAL PARTIES TOWARDS THE REFUGEES
6.1 Nature of Political Perceptions and the Refugees
6.2 Foreigners or Refugee Issue in Assam
6.3 (i) Foreigners or Refugees Issue in Arunachal Pradesh: Background
6.3 (ii) Perceptions of Chakmas and Hajongs
6.3 (iii) Perceptions of AAPSU
6.3 (iv) Perceptions of Arunachal Congress
6.3 (v) Interview of Mr. Apang towards the Refugees

6.3 (vi) Arunachal Congress Vs the Centre and Judiciary—NHRC and the Refugees

6.4 Foreigners or Refugee Issue in Mizoram

6.5 Foreigners or Refugee Issue in Tripura

6.6 Foreigners or Refugee Issue in Tamil Nadu

Chapter VII

CONCLUSION

Bibliography