ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

‘No creation in this world is a solo-effort, neither is this thesis”

The successful completion of any task would be incomplete without mentioning people whose ceaseless cooperation made it possible. I have been able to bring this thesis in present shape only because of hearty support and immense cooperation of number of heads and hands.

Before, I embark upon the presentation of this study I feel it is my solemn duty to express my endeavouring sincere thanks and gratitude to my guide Dr. Chetna Parmar, Associate Professor, School of Management, RK University, Rajkot and Dr. Nikhil Gokhale, Associate Director, Faculty of Doctoral Studies and Research, RK University, Rajkot.

The main intellectual stimulus for conducting this study was provided by her. She has been very kind and ever telling to help me throughout the course of the work for this study. It is indeed a proud privilege of having the opportunity of working with such a scholarly, delightful and pleasant personality whose deep guidance and constant inspiration have been valuable to me. She has played a significant role in improving the quality of research work with her valuable suggestions, guidance and comments. She has been a source of constant motivator for my critical situation.

First and foremost, I owe my special thanks to Dr. Hitesh Ruparel, Director General of GLS University for allowing me to pursue my research. I would also like to acknowledge my deep sense of gratitude to my colleagues and friends especially Dr. GurmeetSingh Sikh for his valuable suggestions that helped in preparation of this thesis.

I express my respectful gratitude to Mrs. Niru Avinash Shah, my beloved mother, Mr. Avinash C.Shah, my beloved father, Mrs. Dhara Pragnesh Shah, my beloved sister
& Mr. Pragnesh Shah, my beloved brother-in-law. Without their support and persistent help this thesis would not have been possible.

Last, I remember the master of ceremonies, the almighty God who gave me courage, enthusiasm and vigour to perform this research work.
