ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I bow in reverence to the Almighty Allah whose benign benediction gave me the required zeal for completing this work.

The completion of a research work needs constant supervision and constructive guidance in manifold ways. It gives me immense pleasure to express my sincere gratitude to my guide and mentor Prof. Farooq Ahmad Mir for his guidance, constant encouragement, support and keen interest to make this study possible and meaningful. All credit goes to him for developing in me the taste for research. It is due to his endeavors that the study has seen the light of the day.

I am indebted to Prof. Mohammad Ayub, Head and Dean, Faculty of Law for rendering the necessary cooperation for completion of this thesis work.

I express sincere thanks to Dr. Fareed Ahmad Rafiqui, Associate Professor, Faculty of Law for his selfless and ever helping attitude. Without his help this work would have been impossible.

I pay heart-felt gratitude to my uncle Prof. Late Majid Muzmar in translating the research tool employed in this research work in Urdu language.

I am highly thankful to Prof. A.S. Bhat and Prof. Mohammad Akram Mir for their fatherly advice and guidance at the crucial stages of my career.

My umpteen thanks are due to Prof. G.Q. Mir, Prof. Altaf Ahmad Mir, Prof. N.M. Bilal, Prof. Abdul Latif Wani, Prof. Shafiq Ahmad Punjabi, Dr. Mohammad Hussain, Dr. Beauty Banday, Dr. Shahnaz, Dr. Syed Asima Refayi, Dr. S.A. Bhat, Ms. Heena Basharat, Mr. Iftikhar Hussain Bhat and Mr. Mir Junaid Alam.
It is said that an artisan's every minute is precious. He cannot bear to remain idle for even a smallest moment. I would like to express my deepest appreciation to all those artisans who spent their invaluable time to acquaint me with the realities they are facing.

I am thankful to all the institutions and libraries for granting me access to their reading material. Thanks to the staff of the Supreme Court Judge’s Library, National Science Library, Libraries of Indian Law Institute, Deemed University, New Delhi, Indian Society of International Law, New Delhi, Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi, Department of Law University of Kashmir, Srinagar, Craft Development Institute, Srinagar, School of Designs, Srinagar, Indian Institute of Carpet Technology, Srinagar.

With deep sense of gratitude I would like to thank Directorate of Handicrafts, Srinagar, Directorate of Handloom Development Department, Srinagar, Directorate of Economics and Statistics, Government of Jammu and Kashmir, Export Promotion Council for Handicrafts, New Delhi and Carpet Export Promotion Council, New Delhi for their cooperation and courtesy by providing me the statistical data relating to handicrafts at International, National and State levels.

I feel complacent by paying sincere thanks to the Assistant Directorates (Handicrafts) of Districts Srinagar, Budgam, Anantnag and Pulwama for providing me the data and other relevant information relating to crafts being practiced in their respective districts. I am also indebted to Directorate Entrepreneur Development Institute, Pulwama for providing me necessary help at the crucial stage of this research work.

I express my sincere thanks to Ms. Nazima Qadri, Craft Development Institute, Srinagar, and Ms. Amina Asad, School of Designs, Srinagar for their able and valuable help in making me to understand different techniques and designs involved in different crafts.

I would like to convey my gratitude to Mohammad Younis Bhat, Research Scholar and Mohammad Imran, BA.LL.B. student for helping me in giving finishing touch to this work.

I would like to thank Virus Documentation Centre, Hazratbal Srinagar for typing this material, systematic correction and cooperation.

I am also thankful to my friends and colleagues especially Ms. Rubina Iqbal Ganai, Saba Manzoor, Ms. Seemen Muzaffar and Ms. Shabina Arafat for their support and encouragement.

My special thanks are to my friend Lata Nischal and her family who were behind me when abysmal darkness tried to shake my confidence while working on this research work.

Last but certainly not the least I would like to express my lifelong gratitude to my family members whose moral support and encouragement has always been a source of inspiration for me. I am immensely grateful to my younger brothers Mir Khusrau, Mohammad Maqbool, Faiq Manzoor and younger sister Quratul-Aen for their unending love and concern.

Mir Farhatul-Aen
