ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The author expresses his deep sense of gratitude and indebtedness to Dr. P.S. Subramanyam, Principal, J.B. Institute of Engineering & Technology, Hyderabad - 75 under whose guidance this thesis work had been carried out. Mere words would not be sufficient to place on record to rudite guidance, sustained encouragement, constructive comments and inspiring discussions with him during the course of this work. The author wishes to record that he considers himself to be fortunate to have worked under him. He in fact has been the source of inspiration for this work.

The author wishes to thank the authors of text books and technical papers, who directly and indirectly helped to complete this work.

The author is thankful to the Vice-Chancellor, Director of evaluation, Director of Institute of Post Graduate studies and Research of JNTU for giving an opportunity to carry out this Ph.D. work.

The author places on record with gratitude the kind help extended by Professor K. Raja Reddy, Former Director of Evaluation and Principal Visvodaya Institute of Technology & Science, Kavali and Professor Madan Mohan, Department of Electrical & Electronics Engineering, Osmania University, Hyderabad.
The author is thankful to Dr. G. Tulasi Ram Das, Professor & Head, Department of Electrical & Electronics Engineering, JNTU College of Engineering, Hyderabad for the encouragement he had given.

The author is thankful to Dr. C.S. Reddy, Former Principal, K.S.R.M. College of Engineering, Cuddapah and Dr. S. Venkateswara Rao, Principal, VNR Vignana Jyothi Institute of Engineering & Technology for giving necessary permissions to carryout this Ph.D. work.

The author wishes to express his heartfelt thanks to friends who helped directly or indirectly to complete the work.

The author wishes to thank Mr. M. Veera Swamy & Mr. A. Neelam Reddy who typed the thesis for their pains taking care to put it in the present form.

Last but not the least, the moral support extended by my wife Smt. Padma and Daughter Swathi can only be felt by the author and is incommensurable by any means. It is deeply acknowledged in the same measure.
