I do not find words to express my sense of gratitude to my supervisor Dr. Maitrayee Chaudhari. She was kind and patient to the extent of letting me have an unrestricted claim upon her time. She gave her valuable suggestion in all the stages of work. And without her sustained guidance, this thesis would have remained an abstraction.

I express my gratitude to all the professors of my centre who helped me at different stages of this work.

My thanks are also due to the librarians and the members of staff of the libraries of Jawaharlal Nehru University- New Delhi, Nehru Memorial Museum, Library- New Delhi, Delhi University, HelpAge India-New Delhi and United Nations Information Centre-New Delhi, for their help and cooperation in collecting the source and material for this work.

I cannot miss to thank Mr. Mukesh of 'Vicky Enterprises', Lucknow, who typed the manuscript with tenacity and patience. I am also indebted to my friends whose constant encouragement enabled me to complete the task in time.

My special gratitude goes to my mother and father, who have been a constant source of inspiration and without whose encouragement and insistence this thesis would not have been completed. Finally, I bow in reverence to the Almighty whose constant benign blessings led my endeavour to fructify. This thesis is dedicated to Him with all humility and love.
