ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Many people have supported me during my research work. It is my immense pleasure to express sincere gratitude to all of them. I extend my profoundest gratitude and thanks to my supervisors Professor (Dr.) S.K. Garg and Professor (Dr.) P.B. Sharma for guiding me throughout my research work. I sincerely acknowledge their efforts and commitment to ensure the quality of this thesis. Their spectrum of knowledge and intellectual ability has helped me to have a good understanding of the subject. More importantly, their unassuming humility, principles and values have left an indelible impression in my heart. It would always be a source of strength and inspiration in my life. It was a matter of good luck for me to be their research student. I really owe them lots of gratitude for having enlightening my path of research.

I thank the members of students’ research committee who monitored my work and took pains in providing me with valuable comments and insights from time to time. My sincere thanks to Prof. (Dr.) P.K. Suri, Dr. Richa Mishra, Dr. Shikha N. Khera, Dr. Archana Singh and Dr. Vikas Gupta for giving me valuable advice and inspiration during the course of my work. My colleagues Ms.Vaishali Shamra and Ms. Upali Arijita Biswas for their valuable support during my research in India.

My heartfelt gratitude and sincere thanks to Prof. Dr. Ludwig Theuvsen, for inviting me to Georg-August-University Göttingen, for carrying out part of Doctoral research in Germany. He has provided me with valuable guidance, encouragement and help during the stay in Germany. I also thank to Deutscher Akademischer Austauschdienst i.e. German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) for awarding me fellowship and encouragement to carry out research in full time.

I especially thank Mr. Welf Guenther-Lübbers, who has supported me during my stay at Göttingen. I also thank Ms. Martina Reichmann and Ms. Monika Scholz for their cooperation and enthusiastic help at Georg August University, Germany.

I am grateful to God for making my Doctoral work a memorable and pleasurable experience by offering me a life time opportunity to stay in peaceful and spiritually elevating environment at Georg August University, Gottingen, Germany.
I am grateful to my wife Mrs. Shama Mahajan and would like to thank her, whom I ignored during my research work. It could not have been completed without her support, encouragement, cooperation and love. I am also thankful to my children Baby Srijan and Master Atharv Mahajan for their excellent manners. I do not have words to express my sincere thanks to my parents and in laws for their moral support and blessings, without them I would not be where I am right now.

My special thanks to my brother Mr. Viney Mahajan, sister Mrs. Shabnam Mahajan, sister in law Dr. Ujjala Mittal and brother in law Mr. Vikram Mahajan, for helping me in compiling the work.

Finally my deepest and sincere gratitude to almighty God who made this all happen. Who was by my side all the time - in my anguish and in my joy for he is the true master and the guide.

Rajneesh Mahajan
