ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

At the very outset I would like to convey my heartfelt regard to my guide Dr. N.N.Sharma who has not only guided me but also shared the pains with me in this laborious work. His valuable suggestions, criticism and inspiration lead me towards the completion of the research work. I shall remain grateful to him for ever.

The research work started when I had been working as a Sub-editor of “Asomiya Pratidin”. The proprietor Mr. Jayanta Kr. Barua, the editor Haidar Hussain, ex-executive editor Adip Kr. Phukan and the staffs of the paper provided me enthusiastic support to carry the research activity. I am very much thankful to all of them.

The head of the department of library and information science of G.U. Dr. N.N.Lahkar, Reader Dr. R.K.Barman, ex-head Dr. A.Burhagohain, Lecturer Sanjoy Singh, The librarian incharge of K.K.Hindique library of Gauhati University Bhupen Goswami have greatly helped me in searching the research information and also encouraged me with their opinion and criticism. I shall never forget their involvement in my work.

I am very much grateful to Mr. Prafulla Ch. Barua, the executive trustee of media trust and ex-editor of ‘Dainik Janambhumi” and “Dainik Asom”. I was continuously advised by him specially during the last year of my research. I am grateful to Radhika Mohan Bhagawati under whose editorship “Ajir Asom” was published by taking rural journalism as a mission. Bhagawati shared his views and experiences which helped me a lot in my research work.

Nirupama Borgohain ‘Baidew’ whose message through her creations and life has made me confident enough to face all the negative situations. I shall never forget her valuable suggestions and blessings on me.

For the purpose of the research work I had to take the interviews of the personalities like the ex-Chief Minister of Assam Sarat Chandra Sinha, Sahitya Academy award winner, writer and chief editor of Sadin Mr. Tilak Hazarika, Editor of ‘Aji’ and ‘Natun Samai’ Mr. Ajit Kr. Bhuyan, Editor of Sadin Mrs. Anuradha Sharma Pujari, editor of Asom Bani Mr. Dilip Chandan, Senior Journalists- P. Saikia , Mukul Kalita, Brajakishore Saikia, Nava Thakuria, Munin Bayan, Pranoi Bardolai and Dulal Sarmah. I am thankful to all of them for their patience hearing of my questions and their kind answers. I am also thankful to hundreds of correspondents, reporters, readers, librarians etc. who answered my questionnaires regarding the research. I beg their pardon for not mentioning their names as the list will be a long one.

I was greatly supported by some of the organizations like All Assam Press Correspondents Union(APCU), All Assam Journalist Union, All Assam Rural Librarians Union, Aranya Suraksha Samiti, Assam Assam Library Association, The Gelabil Satra, The Satrasal Satra, The Sundaridia Satra, The Bilasipara Press Club, Orang Press Club, Dhekiajuli Press Club, East Darang Press Club, the Journalist Group of Digboi, Pengari, Tinisukia, Mirja, Ajara, Udalguri, Dhubri, Gauripur, Barpeta and the Guwahati press Club. I am grateful to the authorities and members of these organizations who facilitated me to work in search of information in their organizations.

Apart from the K.K. Handique library of Gauhati University, I had to consult with many other libraries like North-East Foundation library of Guwahati. Worth mentioning is that famous book lover who was like an ‘inborn librarian’, Late Nanda Talukdar’s collection of the old newspapers and Journals of Assam are kept in this library. My gratitude not only goes to North-East foundation but also to the pious soul of Late Nanda Talukdar whose foresightness has given me so many opportunity in the search of old newspapers and Journals of Assam. My regards also goes to Dr. Pitambar Dava Goswami, the Satradhikar of Auniati Satra of Majuli and his disciples as well as correspondents Mr. Kamal Dutta and Nirmal Bora for their kind help in searching the information, specially regarding the second newspaper of Assam the ‘Assam Biliasini’ which was published about 150 years ago from Auniati. I never forget the hospitality offered by the Satra to me during the time of the survey in the river Island of Majuli, the pioneer place of Assamese journalism.

I have also used the News libraries of the Newspapers group like 'The Assam Tribune', 'Aji', 'Sadin', 'The Sentinel', 'The Dainik Janambhumi' (Jorhat as well as Guwahati), 'Amar Asom' and 'Natun Dainik'. I am thankful to the authorities of these libraries of giving permission to use the libraries. My thanks also go to the authorities of the state archives, Dispur, the library of Archeological department of Assam, Guwahati, The Bilasipara College library, Dr. Robin Benerjee Memorial library organized by Aranya Suraksha Samiti, Assam, The Auniati Satra library and archive, The archive of Sundaridia Satra, The Madhavadeva library and the students library of Sundaridia village of Barpeta District, The Sankar-Ajan Sammannoi Puth-Bharal of NayerAlga Char of Dhubri District, the west Gelabil rural Library of Udalguri District, Hakama Lachit Sangha library of Dhubri District for their support in searching the information. I am also grateful to the family members of Late Benudhar Sarma, (the freedom fighter and writer) who have provided me the permission to use the preserved newspapers and documents. (At present the collection is developed as 'Benudhar Sarma, Ajit Kr. Sarma memorial library'). Mr. Santanu Kousik Barua and Pritima Kousik Barua also helped by providing me some copies of old newspapers.

A special case study regarding rural reporting and readership was done at Hakama village of Dhubri District. The farmers, teachers, students, Social workers etc. of the village have greatly supported me and co-operated with me in the survey activities. I am thankful to all of them.

Apart from the above mentioned persons and institutions I was helped and supported by my family members and fellow friends. I beg pardon for not mentioning their names here but the memory of their helping hands will remain in my memory for ever.
