ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The author humbly expresses his gratefulness and reverence to Dr. K. Lal Kishore, Professor (Retd.), JNTUH, Hyderabad for his guidance and moving aspirations all through this research period. It is a matter of great pleasure to have such a philosopher as a supervisor and guide. No word of thanks can adequately acknowledge the author’s sense of indebtedness to him.

The author wishes to express his sincere thanks to Prof. G. Ramana Rao, Principal, Varadha Reddy college of Engineering, Warangal for extending all facilities and words of encouragement while working on this research programme.

The author is indebted to The Management, SR Educational Academy, for extending every possible help and support during the course of study.

The author takes this opportunity to express profound gratitude to his colleagues Sri V. Ramakrishna, Sri A. Ashok and Sri P. Ramchandar Rao for the technical discussions, arrangement of software and support.
A very special debt of deep gratitude is offered to author’s parents Smt. P. Upendra Devi and Sri P. Madhava Rao for their unceasing sacrifices, endeavors and encouragement.

Thanks are due to the author’s wife Smt. P. Aruna, and children Mr. P. Aditya and Ms. P. Siri Madhavi for their patience, understanding and persistent encouragement.

The author gratefully acknowledges the help given by all the persons who have directly or indirectly supported the work.
