Summary of the thesis

Though the Exim bank has been started by the central government for providing loans to exporters and importers, it is facing several problems regarding financing loans, its limitations etc. apart from that it is also facing the procedural problems. It helps to such exporters and importers whose foreign trade is more than 10 crores annually. It is observed this bank has given less importance to small and medium scale businesses.