I wish to place on record my sincere thanks and obligation to all those who have helped me in my research work through their encouragement, support and prayers. I would like to express my heartfelt thanks to my guide Dr. V. Alexander Raju for all the assistance I received from him. His reassurances have gone a long way in instilling confidence, and his thoughtful suggestions have helped a lot in improving the quality of this thesis.

I am greatly indebted to Dr. T. V. Thomas whose vast scholarship and selfless guidance have had a profound effect on this study. Without his generous help it would have been extremely difficult for me to pursue my Ph.D. programme to its completion.

My sincere thanks are due to the Principal, the faculty of the English Department and the staff of Baselius College Kottayam for providing me all the necessary support from the Research centre. I gratefully acknowledge the sincere cooperation of the authorities and staff-members of the concerned sections of Mahatma Gandhi University. My special thanks are also due to the Manager, Principal and my colleagues of St. Little Teresa’s G H S S Vaikom for their concern, cooperation and encouragement.

My heart abounds with gratitude to my professors Dr. John E. Abraham and Prof. A.M. Gheevarghese who found time to correct and modify the thesis. Not only the depth of their knowledge, but also their dedication and willingness to help others make me ponder over sincere realms seem to be unreachable.
Prof. T. M. Yesudasan and Dr. K. S. Saji helped me to decide on my research area, and both of them were helpful fellow-travellers all through my academic enquiry.

Let me extend my special thanks to Rev. Dr. K. V. Mathew Kuzhivelil, Dr. A. P. Thomas, Dr. Vamanan Nampoothiri, Rev. Fr. George Vayalipparambil, Rev. Fr. Sam Koshy, Dr. Sobhana Kurian, Tom Thomas, Dr. Joji John Panicker, Jyothimol. P., Dr. Rayson K. Alex, Johnson T. P., Alwin Alexander and Nitya Mariam John who have helped me in different ways at various phases of my study.

I also wish to thank my relatives and friends who supported a lot in data-collection like Denil, Anu, Della (all in US), Ajishaliyan (Mysore), Siby (Abudhabi), Kunjachenichayan (Pune), Seemon Uncle (Manglore), Merine Roy (Chennai), Kuriachenaliyan (Aluva), Rev. Dr. Elias and Joby John (Bangalore) along with the library wing at various institutions like MG University, MT Seminary, UC College, Old Seminary, BPC College, Gospel for Asia Biblical Seminary, CMS College, MSOT Seminary and Ebenezer Bible College Thalayolaparambu.

The computer-skill of Binil my neighbour, Thejas my nephew, Mehru and Suman (my nieces), and Nancy my better-half was of immense help to me in the project. I cannot forget the help of Simi Bibin for providing me copies of the rough draft whenever needed. For the present presentable well-bound form of the thesis, I am obliged to the professional mastery of my friend Unni at Minitek Computers, University junction, Priyadarsini Hills.
The manifold support of my ‘small’ family- at present of 22 members ranging from Vellianty (86 years) to Appoos (completing 3 years)- made me move through, sometimes mazy and some other times monotonous yet challenging tracks of the research. The creative involvement of my beloved brother Dr. Santhosh Potharay should be specially mentioned.

I have been benefited a great deal by the prayers of a lot of persons including my spiritual fathers, teachers, colleagues, parish-members and my beloved students.

At this moment, with wet eyes I remember late Fr. Cherian Kottayil, along with my grandparents, who dreamt of the day of my thesis-submission.

Above all THE MERCIFUL who led me all the way, through the intercession of St. Mary, who bore the holy seed that became the blessed tree, St. Basil of Caesarea, the Cappadocian Church Father who oriented the believers regarding the cruelties of human beings towards other animals through the prayer he wrote and St. Augin, the Egyptian monk and wonderworker who selflessly supported the life around, as a ‘pearl diver’.
