Acknowledgement

At the outset, I thank Almighty Allah for giving me patience and determination to complete my work. Guidance by the supervisor is of paramount importance and I am highly grateful to Prof. Mohd Mohsin Khan for his perennial support, mentoring and convivial approach throughout the research work. I am also grateful to the Dean Prof. Nawab Ali Khan for his encouragement and academic assistance, and to all my teachers (serving and retired) of the Department of Commerce, AMU for their counsel and pedagogic inputs.

I could not have come thus far in life without my family; my father, mother and brother. I owe an immeasurable thank you, though words do not suffice.

I acknowledge contribution of few other people in completion of this work. My friends and colleagues for stimulating suggestions in making this work relevant; administrative and support staff of Department/Faculty of Commerce, Maulana Azad Library and Computer Centre for having assisted me in this endeavor.

Ahmed Musa Khan
