ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am indeed grateful to all who assisted me in this herculean task of processing this thesis leading to the research work captioned as "The Study of Human resource Development Practices performed in Pharmaceutical Industries in and around Pune " in this consistent and continued process I have been inspired, advised and helped by many people designing the structure, making available the literature , having brainstorming and thought provoking discussion respond to questionnaire, people who disseminated information and data .

My deep sense of gratitude and heartful thanks to my respectable and honorable guide Dr. Prasanna G.Deshmukh a versatile personality, principal Anantrao Thopte College, Bhor, for his support and guidance, positive, pragmatic and proactive instructions .He has also gone through the thesis at the micro level and suggested certain additions, deletions, alterations, modification which have been sincerely acknowledged, accepted and adopted by me.

Lastly I vindicate that I could not have completed this project without blessings of He that Almighty.
