ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

During the course of the present study I had to consult a number of scholars, libraries and institutions. A large number of individuals were instrumental in facilitating my numerous field-work trips. I have immensely benefitted from the works of the great savants who have earlier shed light on several aspects of the subject undertaken by me. It remains my most pious duty to express my gratitude to all those who have been instrumental in helping me in one way or the other in the completion of this work, which remain but humble attempt on part for the furtherance of the knowledge in the field like a small drop of water in the ocean.

Words are ever so inadequate to express the gratitude that I feel towards my guide Professor Ashvini Agrawal former Dean, Faculty of Arts and Chairman, Dept. of Ancient Indian History, Culture & Archaeology, Panjab University, Chandigarh. His involved, inspiring and affectionate guidance, insightful and brilliant expertise, and gentle, constructive critique, guidance during the time of field work in remote and tough areas of Himachal Pradesh and stimulating discussions on various aspects of the study which was carried out, made the path of research more enjoyable and a great learning process.

I express my deep gratitude to Professor N.K. Ojha, former Chairman, Dept. of Ancient Indian History, Culture & Archaeology, Panjab University, Chandigarh, who always inspired and encouraged me during the various stages of this research work.

I am thankful to Dr. Ellen Raven, Leiden University, Netherlands, who encouraged me and gave me invaluable inputs during the present research. I am also thankful to Achla ma’am for her motherly love and affection. I am beholden to sh. R.C. Agrawala, former Director, Archaeology and Museums, Rajasthan, Jaipur for his valuable suggestions. I express my sincere thanks to Dr. Rajinder Bhandari, Department of Fine Arts, Panjab University, Chandigarh, for his encouragement and inspiration. I am also grateful to Professor B.R. Kathil, former Chairman, Ancient Indian History, Culture & Archaeology, Kurukshetra University, for his support.

I am grateful to the present Chairperson Dr. Paru Bal Sidhu, Former Chairperson Dr, Renu Thakur, Department of Ancient Indian History Culture and Archaeology, for their support and encouragement. I also acknowledge the help and support which I have received from the administrative staff of the Department.

I record my thanks to Dr. Manisha Gupta, librarian Government College of Art, Mrs. Sangeeta Sharma, librarian, Government Museum and Art Gallery for allowing me to use and consult their libraries. Sh. Narinder Pal Singh, guide, Government Museum and Art Gallery, for his help.

I must express my heartfelt thanks to sh. Kumud Upadhayaya, Assistant Engineer, HPPWD, Chamba, who facilitated my comfortable stay during my visit to Chamba and Bharmaur. I am thankful to Dr. Anand Sharma, Assistant Professor, Government college of Art, Dr. Deepak Rawat, Assistant Professor, Government College for Women. Dr. Sangram Singh, Kshitij who were all munificent in their help whenever I needed it.

Thanks are also due to Sh. Hari Chauhan, Registering Officer, State Museum Shimla, Sh. S.M. Sethi, former curator Bhuri Singh Museum, Chamba for his suggestions, Sh. Rajesh Sehgal, it is very kind of him to provide me with some of the photographs of the sculptures from Chamba. Sh. Hem Singh, Mohinder Chauhan, Janmejay, Krishan Singh Bisht and Satish Malpa, who were always there to help me in every possible manner. I am thankful to the priests of various temples of Himachal Pradesh, who allowed me to study, examine and photograph the images inside the temple.

It is because of the blessings, love, care and support of my parents, Sh. O.C. Sharma, Smt. Leela Sharma that I could do the present research. My entire family especially my brother Atul Sharma, who helped me in editing the photographs, my Bhabhi ji Saroj Sharma and my wife Aradhana Sharma, who accompanied me during my field work. They were all generous and encouraging during the course of the present work.

Finally I am thankful to the University Grants Commission for giving me Teacher Fellowship, so that I was relieved from my college duties to focus completely on my research work.
