ACKNOWLEDGMENT

This research work would not have existed without the will of Almighty God His mercy and blessings have empowered me throughout my life.

This thesis, though a very small and insignificant piece of literary creation, is all the same an important piece of writing for me as an individual. And, therefore, I have an abundant amount of instinctive gratefulness for all those who helped me in my humble endeavor in any manner.

I don’t have enough words to express my gratitude to Dr. Girbal Singh Lodhi, Head, Faculty of Management, Ram Krishna Dharmarth Foundation University (M.P.), for his kind guidance, support, cooperation and encouragement, but for which this work would not have been possible.

I also profusely thank Dr. B.N. Singh, Registrar and Dr. V.K. Sethi, Vice Chancellor, RKDF University, Bhopal for his encouragement, guidance and active assistance through the entire project and also for his checking the facts in order to weed out any inaccuracies and inconsistencies. Without his invaluable advice and guidelines I would remain sort of groping in the dark.

I am also thankful to Miss Shaileen Jain, Mrs. Farha Khan, Miss Nida Sarwar, Mrs. Sapna Namdeo, Miss Sonal Singh and Dr. Ashish Singh Baghel for helping me with the data, Miss Archana Shrivastava, Librarian for letting me use the services of the library and helping me get the books must for the research work.

It is clearly impossible for me to thank individually all those who have been helpful, and have taken the trouble to answer to my queries during the course of this research and enabled me to obtain first-hand information. I also thank the data providers of each bank who helped me by providing the data without which this research work would not have meterilised. The generous support and morale boosting extended to me by my friends all along in my endeavour is never to be forgotten.

Finally I express my regards to my family members, parents friends and specially to my wife for loving care, encouragement and patience shown during the entire research work.

Needless to say, I alone remain responsible for any error and omissions that might have crept into the pages despite my utmost efforts to avoid them. I regret my inability to incorporate precious material available to me for the limitations of space in this concise work.
