Preface
The study is an analysis of some aspects of the relations between France and the United States during the period 1958-1965.

It consists of five chapters. Chapter I describes the attitudes and policies of the two countries towards the N.A. Treaty Alliance and Organization. Chapter II traces the evolution of the French nuclear policy and discusses its role in the relations between the two countries. Chapter III is a study of their attitudes towards the problem of European political unity and integration. Chapter IV is an analysis of the role of French policy towards West Germany, in Franco-American relations. Chapter V highlights the actual course of relations between the two countries.

I desire to record my deep sense of gratitude to a number of persons in India and Switzerland (Geneva) for having extended to me their assistance and guidance. I am extremely grateful to my Supervisor Dr. G.K. Mukerjee and to the Director Dr. M.S. Rajan.

My gratitude is due to the Librarian and members of the staff of the Library of the Indian Council of World Affairs and the Indian School of International Studies, New Delhi, and of the Graduate Institute of International Studies Geneva. My gratitude is also due to friends who gave valuable suggestions and to innumerable well wishers in and out of Delhi.
