My most sincere expressions of gratitude must go to Prof. Dr. K. R. Rao who supported me with his critical mind and tolerated my polemics with his always original, thoughtful conceptions. Despite his many duties and own workload, he generously devoted precious time and his brilliant mind to my thesis.

My warmest thanks go to Prof. Dr. Yashvant Sumant the Head of the Department of Politics and Public Administration of Pune University. Furthermore, my warmest thanks also go to Prof. Dr. Suhas Palshikar the former Head of Department for helping me in my thesis and making valuable comments and suggestions.

I will always remember India and Indians with feelings of love and gratitude.

As a final consideration, My deepest indebtedness goes to every member of my family, my wife Mrs. Masoomeh Haghbin and my children Fatima, Mohammad and Atifa, relatives and friends for their patience during the preparation of this work and without whose constant encouragement and moral support throughout the course of the study and without their blessings this work would have never seen the light of the day and could not be found in the present shape.
