ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

This thesis is a milestone in my academic career. I have been fortunate to learn new perceptions and new approaches which would have been impossible if I had not extensively carried out the needed research. I am grateful to a number of people who have guided and supported me throughout the research process and provided assistance for my venture.

I would like to thank my teacher, Dr. R. KasthuriBai, Associate Professor (Rtd.), Sri. Sarada College for Women (Autonomous), Salem, who guided me in selecting the area of my research. My teacher was there throughout my preparation of the proposal and the conceptualization of its structure. I would not have been able to do the research and achieve learning in the same manner without her help and support. Her wide knowledge and her logical way of thinking have been of great value for me. Like an adept sculptor her hand in chiseling, shaping and infusing life into this project is astounding. I am profoundly indebted to her for her understanding, encouragement and personal guidance which have provided a good basis for my research.

I extend my heartfelt thanks to the benevolent Management and the esteemed Principal, Dr. R. Rajeswari, M.Com., M.Phil., Ph.D., M.C.A., of Sri Sarada College for Women, for permitting me to undertake the present study and also for the moral support extended to me. I am grateful to Mrs.
R. Sukanya, Associate Professor and Head of the Department of English and all the faculty members of the Department of English, Sri Sarada College for Women, Salem for their words of encouragement and guidance.

I offer my profound gratitude to Prof. K.T. Madhavan, the former Principal and Prof. M.A. Babu the present Principal of Rashtriya Sanskrit Sansthan, Deemed University, Guruvayoor Campus, for having given me a world of confidence and support to complete my research programme.

I would like to gratefully acknowledge the support of some very special individuals, Prof. K.L. Sebastine, Sr. Tresa Dominic, Dr. Kamala K, Shilpa, Smt. K.U. Jaya, Dr. S.V.R. Murthy, Razeena, Indu, Salma. N.K and Smrithi.P.K, who helped me immensely through their acts of advice, attention and acts of friendship.

My sincere thanks are due to my children - Meghna and Akshay for bearing with me during the period of my research work. They understood my dedication and extended their utmost co-operation. Equally I express my sincere thanks to my loving husband Mr. P.V. Sukumaran for being a pillar of strength and a beacon light to me throughout my Research work. I place on record my immense gratitude to my wonderful mother, C.K. Thankam and my beloved sister M.K. Sheena for their selfless love and devotion shown to me in all respects. I faithfully acknowledge their ever loving support and motivations.
