ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I express my sincere thanks to my supervising guide Dr. K.N. Ganesh, who has shaped me as a research student. Without his affection, understanding and moral support I would not have been able to complete this work.

I owe a special debt to Prof. M.P. Sridharan, late Professor at Malabar Christian College Calicut, who inspired me to indulge in research activity. I am also indebted to my former teachers Mr. P. Venu, Dr. K.A.M. Anwar, and to Dr. Padmakumari Amma, at the Department of History, Government Arts and Science College, Meenchanda and to Dr. T.K. Anand for their constant support and encouragement.

For this work, I am indebted to countless individuals, on different stages, for their support and assistance. I express my sincere thanks to branch secretaries of service banks in different parts of North Malabar, for gave me information about the respondents. I am indebted to Dr. M.T. Narayanan, Department of History, Sanskrit University Centre Payyannur; Dr. P. Mohandas, Department of History Krishna Menon Women's College Pallikkunnu; P.K. Damodharan, Mayyil; P. Muraleedharan, Manakkad; A.K. Laila Madikkai; K.P. Krishnan Udinoor, Priyamole, M.S.; Mr. V. Kuttiyyan, Department of History, Nehru Arts and Science College, Kanjanganad; for helping me in my field work. Besides these I express my sincere thanks to all respondents who shared their experiences their time and their affection.

I also express my sincere thanks to Ms. K. Sarojini, Department of History, S.N. College, Thottada; Merlin, Abraham, R.S.M. College, Quilandy; Jaya, P.K.,
Sheeja P.C., Lisha, K.K. and their family for provided me with a home each time I spend in their areas.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the librarians and staff of the Department of History and C.H. Memorial Library, Calicut University; Kerala University Library Trivandrum; Mysore University Library, Centre for Development Studies Trivandrum; Mr. Prabhakaran, M.M. Press, Mathrubhumi Calicut; Mr. Andalat, Librarian, AKG Centre, Trivandrum; Velam Local Library, Mayyil; Branjoli Local Library, Thalassery; M.N. Smaraka Library, Trivandrum; Central Archives Trivandrum and a special thanks to the staffs of Regional Archives, Calicut. Besides I would like to thank Indian Council for Historical Research for granting me research fellowship.

I express my deepest gratitude to all my friends who stood by me during my difficulty without their sustained interest this dissertation would never have come out. I am unable to list the names of all... A sincere thanks to all of them for always being supportive and understanding. No words suffice to thank my parents for the support they have given me. Besides, the concern and interest of my departed brother towards this study motivates me.

I express my sincere thanks to the following for helping me in different stages of this work; Manju C. Nair for preparing photographs, C. Shylaja, for arranging the source materials; Priya Muhammed Ali for correcting the proofs; Dr. M. Jyothi Raj, Department of English, Govt. Arts and Science college for editing, Sahir, V.P. and Ramprakash, P., Infratec, Chenakkal, Calicut University for typing the dissertation with patience.

C.U. Campus

SREEVIDHYA V.