ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to thank the Almighty who gave me strength to complete this research work successfully with patience and confidence. I can not find adequate words to express my inner feelings, especially the sense of indebtedness and gratitude, to offer my sincerest thanks to my esteemed supervisor Professor Sukhwinder Singh whose research acumen, continuous encouragement and personal involvement have enabled me to accomplish this work in time. In fact, he has rekindled my interest and confidence to explore new ideas while teaching ‘Political Economy’ during my post-graduation degree at Shivalik College, Naya Nangal. He shared my concerns and anxieties despite his busy schedules of research work. I feel happy to be his student at Ph. D. level again.

Equally valuable and contributory role is of my co-supervisor, Dr. Jaswinder Singh Brar, whose intellectual simulations, invaluable suggestions and constant inspiration helped me a lot to improve the quality of research work. For this, I am really indebted to him and thank him lavishly. I am deeply obliged to Dr. Ranjit Singh Ghuman, Professor and Head, Department of Economics, Punjabi University Patiala for his timely assistance and unfailing support in whatever was I needed it.

My sincere thanks are due to all the faculty members of Department of Economics, Punjabi University Patiala, especially to Professor Sucha Singh Gill, Professor Inderjit Singh, Professor Lakhwinder Singh, and Professor Shakuntala Gupta for their love and indispensable help. I gained much knowledge from them whenever I approached them with any academic difficulty.
For the successful completion of field work, my gratitude and indebtedness go to the Managements, Principals and Administrative Staff of 29 sampled colleges/institutes of Punjab for providing me much needed primary data for research purposes. Many of them were more anxious to see the final outcomes of research work. My love and affection also go to all those sampled students for providing me the necessary data. I would be failing in my duty, if I could not thank them adequately. I think that, without their help also, this work could not see the light.

I am also thankful to the library staff of the Bhai Kahn Singh Nabha Library, Punjabi University Patiala; A.C. Joshi Library, Panjab University, Chandigarh; and Libraries of Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar, Punjab Technical University, Jalandhar and Baba Farid University of Health Sciences, Faridkot for their valuable cooperation. My special thanks are due to all the office staff of DPI (Colleges) and DPI (Senior Secondary School), Punjab, Chandigarh for allowing me to access the relevant secondary data needed for the research work. Ms Anitbir Kaur and Ms Pirmal Kaur of Department of Economics Library also deserve my thanks for their accolade cooperation.

I find words inadequate to express my sincere gratitude and thanks to Dr. Gurdip Kumar Sharma, Principal of my college and Fellow of Panjab University, Chandigarh for giving me enormous support, valuable feedback and encouragement to finish my research work. And, his wife, Dr. Nisha Bhargava, my closest friend, also deserves my appreciation for inspiration to do hard work. I would like to place sincere thanks to few M.Phil. students of Economics Department, particularly Ms. Navdeep Kaur, Ms. Daljit Kaur Ms.
Prabhjot Kaur, and Ms. Navdeep Kaur of Botany for providing me relaxing environment during my stay in the Amrita Sher-Gill Hostel of Punjabi University, Patiala.

My indebtedness and sincere thanks are due to my revered parents, Sh. Guru Dutt Kalia and Smt. Kamlesh Kalia, who are pillars of my strength and acted as the guiding light throughout my life. I have no words to express my sentiments towards my brothers Sh. Sunil Dutt Kalia and Sh. Manoj Kumar Kalia for their love and support during the research work.

I feel excited to put on record my special thanks and indebtedness to my sweetest daughter, Sabhyata Sharma, whose love, sacrifices (both physically and emotionally) and moral support enabled me to pursue the entire research work. I owe my achievements to her as well.
