ACKNOWLEDGMENT

My first and foremost gratefulness and gratitude is to my research supervisor Dr. Paresh Kelaskar and Dr. Md. Alinoor Rahman, Professor, Department of Management, Islamic University, Kushtia, for his sincere help, invaluable advice, and guidance in every possible way to carry out my research work. I can humbly express that without his meticulous care, help, cooperation and instructions it would have not been possible for me to complete the research work.

I am grateful to the Ph.D. coordinators, scholars, all the teachers and staffs of Shri Jagdish Prasad Jhabarmal Tibrewala University for their support, help which benefited me in conducting my study.

I deeply and gratefully acknowledge the works of those researchers, authors, scholars, and institutions that have immensely benefited me in conducting my study.

I am very grateful to the Principle Architects of the selected architectural firms for providing me with ample opportunity to collect data and information for this study in their organization. I am indebted to all the respondent architects who extended their cooperation and help by responding to fill-up the questionnaire. I am further grateful to the Admin Controllers, Accounts managers, and HR managers of all selected firms who took a lot of trouble to provide me with relevant data about the organizations and sample respondents. Special thanks are due to Ar. Sonia Islam, Partner, Harappa Architects, Dhaka, Bangladesh, for helping me in a number of ways.

I gratefully acknowledge the valuable help and cooperation extended to me by the members of Institution of Architects, Bangladesh, members of Department of architecture, my teachers and faculty members of the University of Asia Pacific and Asian University.
