All the research findings presented in this thesis have been worked out by the author as a University Research Fellow in the Cytogenetics laboratory, Department of Botany, University of Kalyani, during the years 1979-1984. The financial assistance received from the University of Kalyani is gratefully acknowledged.

Major portion of this investigation has been either published or accepted for publications in different journals. A list of which is enclosed in the Appendix I.

With immense pleasure I wish to express my deepest sense of gratitude to my revered teacher Dr. Amal Krishna Biswas, Reader in Botany, University of Kalyani, for his constant sympathetic guidance, affection and encouragement during the entire period of my investigation.

I am grateful to my beloved parents, wife and other members of my family for their numerous valuable suggestions, consistent encouragement and financial support rendered to me during the tenure of my research work. It is only for their goodwill and blessings, I have been able to perform this work. I express my deep regard to the departed soul of my mother-in-law, whose blessings have paved the way for the completion of this thesis. I am indebted to Dr. Debashis Guha for worthy suggestions as well as for various technical help. The feeling of my indebtedness is extended to Mrs. S. Biswas for her kindness and sympathetic behaviour during the entire period of this research work.

Grateful acknowledgements are due to my teachers - Prof. S. Sen, Dr. N.K. Bhattarcharya, Prof. K.R. Samaddar, Dr. A.K. Sarkar, Dr. R.D. Banerjee, Mr. P.K. Bhattacharya and Mr. B. Maity for their affection and wise counsel.

The author offers sincere thanks to Prof. S. Sen and Prof. K.R. Samaddar, the former Heads and to Prof. U. Sen, present Head, Department of Botany, for providing necessary facilities.

He gratefully remembers the cordiality and active co-operation extended to him by Mr. A.K. Mitra, Dr. A. Datta, Miss S. Sarkar, Mr. B.D. Mohanty, Mr. S. Sarkar, Dr. T.K. Datta, Mr. A. Bhattarcharya and Mr. A. Datta during the tenure of this investigation. Cordial thanks are extended to Dr. P.D. Ghosh, Dr. N. Ghosh, Mr. P. Datta, Mr. L. Bhadra, Mr. C. Nandi, Mr. D. Dey, Mr. S. Saha, Dr. P. Pal, Mr. G.M. Sarkar, Dr. S. Samanta, Dr. A. Bose, Mr. N. Bhar, Mr. N. Pal, Mr. S. Khan.
Mr. S. Datta Gupta, Mr. S. Banerjee, Mr. R. Samanta, Mr. C. Sarkar, Mr. G. Chatterjee, Mr. N. Mondal, Miss O. Sen and Miss R. Ahmed for various technical help.

For providing necessary facilities, the author expresses his feeling of thankfulness to different personalities of J.A.R.I., Barrackpore, West Bengal. Sincere thanks are also extended to the Director, Kew Garden, London, for supplying the necessary seed materials.

Finally, the author likes to mention the help and co-operation received from all the members of this department, which he will never forget.
