I have immense pleasure to express my heartfelt gratitude to different quarters for rendering their incessant assistance and co-operation during the course of my study.

At the very outset, I wish to offer my warm regards and deep sense of indebtedness to Dr. E.P. Sainul Abideen, Professor (Retd.), Department of Commerce and Management Studies, University of Calicut, for his insightful and scholarly guidance. His painstaking efforts and valuable advice were available to me throughout my endeavour without which it would have been impossible for me to complete this work in time. Words can seldom convey my gratitude to him for whatever he has done for me so kindly.

I am grateful to Dr. Muraleedharan, Reader and Head, Department of Commerce and Management Studies, University of Calicut and Dr. K.C. Vijayakumar (Retd.), Dr. A.K. Sarada, Dr. P. Mohan, Dr. M.A. Joseph, Dr. V.K. Janardhanan of the same department for their timely help and support extended to me.

I am highly obliged to Dr. T.P.M. Fareed and Miss Dilsha, Department of Statistics, Farook College, Prof. Ahmed Kutty, Dept. of Statistics, PSMO College, Tirurangadi for their valuable suggestions on the application of statistical tool and relentless editorial comments which greatly improved the quality and readability of the report.

I am thankful to the office staff of the Department of Commerce and Management Studies for their administrative support and the librarians of the department library, University Central Library, Centre for Development Studies, Trivandrum, Central Library, University of Kerala, Department Library, University of Kerala, Department Library, Documentation Centre, Trivandrum, Department and Central Libraries, University of Mangalore, Department and Central Library, Bharatiyar University, Coimbatore for providing me with the stock of literature and other related data.
I am also glad to extend a special note of appreciation to the authorities of KSFE Ltd. who have granted permission to conduct the survey and spared their time and energy to make it a successful venture. Sri. K.J. Jacob, the former Administrative Officer, Sri. V.P. Subramanyan, the present Administrative Officer, Sri. N. Mohandas, Senior Manager and managers of sample branches deserve special mention.

I offer my gratitude to Dr. P. Pakkeerappa of Department of Commerce and Management Studies, Mangalore University for giving me a chance to participate in the Research Methodology Workshop conducted by them which also enabled me to submit the report in time.

I extend my special thanks to the Principal and Management of P.S.M.O. College, Tirurangadi for permitting me to do this research on part-time basis.

I am also grateful to Prof. M.C. Ali, Head of the Department of Commerce, P.S.M.O. College, Tirurangadi and other faculty members, especially Sri. P. Abdul Azeez and Sri. P.M Alavikutty for the encouragement extended to me in completing this thesis.

I thank Messrs. A. Mohammed and K.P. Jamaludheen of English Department, for looking into the linguistic aspects of the manuscript and other friends and fellow teachers of my college for their sincere advice and suggestions.

A word of thanks will not also be inappropriate in this context to Mr. Balu of Bina Photostat for bringing out my work in this fashion.

I do not know how to express my sincere gratitude to my family members for the assistance rendered by them in completing this thesis.

All these acknowledgements of thanks would have been futile had not the Almighty graced me to complete this thesis. Therefore all praise is upon Him.

Habeebu Rahiman P.M.
