Bibliography

American Alliance for Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Dance, 1900 Association Drive, Reston, Virginia, 22091.

Barrow and McGee, “A Practical Approach to measurement in Physical Education”, p.112.

Barrow Harold and Rosemary McGee, 1979, A Practical approach to measurement in physical education, Lea and Febiger, Philadelphia, 3rd Ed.

Best Patrick Kenneth, 1975, Psychological Differentiation in the Deaf, Dissertation Abstract International, 35 (Jan.), 4239 – A.

Causes of blindness and visual impairment,” World Health Organization.

Certificate of Vision Impairment: Explanatory Notes for Consultant Ophthalmologists and Hospital Clinic Staff retrieved, April 26, 2010.

Ellis et al. 2005, Social Skills Training with Blind Children.

Ellis, Butterfield, and Lehnhard, 2000, Low Vision Education & Training.

Goodman and Hopper, 1992, Inter Relationship of Physical and Mental Abilities of High School boys.

Harold M. Barrow, The Motor Ability for College Men, Research Quarterly, XXV, October, 1952, p.82.

Harrison H. Clarke and Theodore G. Schopt, “Construction of a Muscular Strength Test for Boys in Grade 4, 5 and 6, Research Quarterly, XXXIII, December, 1962, p.515.

http://www3.who.int/icd/currentversion/fr-icd.htm

Hunter M.D. “A Dictionary for physical Educators DEO Indian University, Bloomington, 1996 cited by Harold in Barrow and Rosemary McGee.”

Living with Low Vision – American Foundation for the Blind

Longmuir & Bar-Or, 2000, A Dictionary for Physical Educators DEO Indian.

Pender and Patterson, 1982, The Effect of Three Parts Experimental Physical Education Programme.

Uppal A.K., Physical Fitness - Flow to Develop, New Delhi, Friends Publication (India), 1990, p.4.

WHO/Magnitude and causes of visual impairment.