The Motivation for the present work has come from my experience of working with the social welfare department as a responsible officer from last 20 years. This motivation has got reinforced by the encouragement by well-wishers, some of them being eminent educationists.

Unable to find appropriate words to express my gratitude to my guide Dr. W.R. Mujawar, who has provided an expertise guidance and co-operation in the completion of this work. I want to put on record that, the training of mind one gets by working with him is something that any researcher would cherish. I feel greatly indebted to him.

Grateful thanks are also due to Prof. P.M. Katare, Ex-Director School of Social Sciences, Dr. A.I. Shaikh, Dr. U.C. Sahoo, Dr. G.S. Yelne, Mrs. Usha Sarode from the School of Social Sciences, SRTMU and Mr. Walekar A.P., Dr. Niranjan Kaur, Mr. Swami Sir, Mr. Sanjay Gawale and others whose advice and guidance was available throughout the pursuance of this work.

I owe my gratitude to all the 200 physically challenged children who provided me with unique opportunity of understanding the fact that the physically handicapped persons are equally productive (economically and socially) as any other human being. I am also thankful to all the staff members of the Residential schools for physically challenged children and the office bearers specially the president of every school for giving me the required help for this research work.
My Special thanks to Mr. R.K. Gaikwad Ex. Commissioner of Handicap welfare Maharashtra State, Pune, My colleague officers of the social justice Dept. Mr. laxmikant Mahajan, Mr. D.D. Deshmukh, Mr. B.M. Tayde, Mr. Bhusne Annarao, Mr. Babasaheb Aravat.

I am also thankful to eminent experts from educational field Dr. Vijay Pawar, Dr. Waman Kalamse, Dr. Swati Pawar, Dr. Pravin Shinde, J.I. Kazi for their co-operation.

Finally, a special word of appreciation for Mrs. Suvarna Patil, my beloved wife and Ajinkya Patil my son for their patience and understanding and time to time inspiration which I received from them.

Lastly I thank one and all who directly and indirectly helped me in the completion of this academic endeavour.
