I am thankful to all the staff members for their constructive guideline in the presentation of my research work. My thanks are also to my friends and lab assistants who had give me their kind co-operation.

I find it difficult to pen down my deepest sense of indebtedness toward my parents who soulfully provided me their constant support and the right impetus to undertake the challenge of this proportion like all other spheres of life, for what I cannot measure but treasure. To them I owe my wonderful today and dream filled future. I would like to recognize the unrelenting support of my father Kashinath, mother Vimal, and brother Gangaprasad has afforded me. They taught me the value of hard work by their own example and saw me completing my work. I owe my Ph.D. more to them than anybody else.

Last but not least, I am thankful to my beloved wife Sharmila, son Manish, my sisters Suvarna, Sandhya, and Supriya, nephew Mahesh, Prasad, and Yash for having the inconveniences caused during the entire period of research activities.

This thesis could not have been possibly brought to a successful culmination without the blessings of Almighty. I bow to him with limitless gratitude and humility. Without his will, this thesis would not been initiated-not to mention completion.

Lastly, it is imperative to point out that though all may not be mentioned none are forgotten.

Wasmatkar Sunil Kashinathrao
