ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

But for the unstinted and wholehearted support and incomparable assistance extended and rendered by innumerable personalities and institutions – the naming of each and every one is practically impossible – this thesis work would not have been undertaken and completed. Yet, it might look improper if the names of a few outstanding persons were not mentioned here.

Words are inadequate to express my gratitude to Dr. T.M. Joseph, my beloved supervisor and guide, an eminent scholar, hardworking educationalist and an able guide who always wish the good of all. Without him I would not have been able to accomplish this study. In spite of being busy with the administrative and academic responsibilities as the Principal of Newman College Thodupuzha, he guided and supervised this work very earnestly. I acknowledge his love, care, guidance and patience with due respect and I thank him sincerely from the very bottom of my heart.

I am extremely grateful to Dr. M. Maharajan, Professor and Director of the School of Gandhian Thought and Development Studies for providing me all the facilities during my research work. I also acknowledge and record my profound gratitude to Dr. Mahajan P. Mani and Dr. M. P. Mathai (former Directors, SGTDS) for their service during the course of my work.

I am extremely thankful to the UGC for sanctioning me research opportunity under Faculty Improvement Programme and the State Government for granting me deputation to do this work.

I express my heartfelt obligation to Very Rev.Fr. Joseph Pampara (Manager), Rev. Dr. Joseph Kollamparampil (Principal) of St.George’s College, Aruvithura for their help and co-operation during the course of my study.

I remember with gratitude the love, encouragement and concern of the faculty members, administrative staff and the students of the School of Gandhian Thought and Development Studies, M.G. University, Kottayam. I sincerely thank the university authorities for their magnanimity in granting the necessary facilities for my studies.

With pleasant feelings of gratitude, I acknowledge the kindness of the librarians of the Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi; National Institute of Rural Development, Hyderabad; Institute for Social and Economic Change, Bangalore; Centre for Development Studies Thiruvananthapuram; Department of Politics, University of Kerala; Campus Library Kariavattom; Public Library Thiruvananthapuram; M.G.University Library and School of Gandhian Thought and Development Studies for providing access to the library facilities.

I would like to take this opportunity to extent my sincere gratitude to my department head Dr. M.V.Georgekutty, colleagues and friends for their constant encouragement and valuable suggestions.

I express my special thanks to all the staff of C-CAD Graphics Aruvithura for their timely service.

This study would not have come to fruition without the cooperation, help and encouragement extended at all times by all the members of my family. I express my deep gratitude to my beloved mother Mariyakutty, my wife Bindu, my children Akhil and Arathi, all my relatives, well wishers and above all to my late father Mathai Vargheese for their irresistible encouragement and spiritual and intellectual support.

Above all, I bow my head before God, the Almighty for giving me the time, talent and patience to carry out this Ph.D. programme successfully.
