ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

When it is time to express the gratitude of all who have been associated with my thesis, first of all my indebted soul turns to my mentor Dr. A. K. Kukreja, Scientist and Head, Plant Tissue Culture Division, Central Institute of Medicinal and Aromatic Plants (CIMAP) without whose fatherly care, guidance and expertise this would never have taken this shape. I am especially thankful to him for his valuable suggestions and lively interest in this Herculean task, which helped me in compiling and presenting the work in the form of this thesis. I would like to express my deep sense of gratitude to my guide and supervisor Prof. N. S. Bisht, Head, Department of Botany, Hemwati Nandan Bahuguna Garhwal University, Srinagar, Garhwal, for his valuable guidance, constant encouragement and constructive criticism throughout the course of this study.

I duly acknowledge the deep concern, constant support, keen interest, constructive and helpful suggestions and moreover a motherly affection rendered by my Dear and Respected mam Dr. (Mrs.) S. Banerjee.

I am also thankful to Dr. S. P. S. Khanuja, Director, CIMAP for providing me the opportunity and relevant facilities to work in this esteemed institution.

I would like to thank dear Laiq sir and Mr. Sanjog T. Thul for their kind encouragement and immensely helpful discussions to boost me up during the whole course of study.

Thanks are also due to Dr. A. K. Shasany, Mr. M. P. Darokar and Dr. Ashutosh Shukla, Dr. S. Luqman Scientists, Genetic Resources and Biotechnology Division, CIMAP for providing the opportunity to work in their laboratory and allowing me to carry out the genetic assessment aspect of my investigation.

I thank and duly acknowledge all the senior scientists of my division, working with Dr. A. K. Mathur and Dr. (Mrs.) A. Mathur was a great experience.

I owe a hefty debt to Dr. S. K. Srivastava, Dr. Karuna Shankar, Dr. (Mrs.) N. S. Sangwan, Dr. A. K. Singh, Dr. O. P. Dhawan and Dr. Alok Kalia for their cooperation in this endeavor.

The technical assistance moreover jovial attitude of Mr. Krishan Gopal is greatly appreciated.

Knowledge is not born parthenogenetically. I have consulted the books and journals on Rauwolfia and other allied material freely. I am also very thankful to Dr. S. K. Srivastava, Library officer and other library staff, CIMAP for providing the library facility and for their regular help.

Bioinformatics Division equally deserves my deep acknowledgement for providing uninterrupted internet facility, without which literature survey was altogether a wild goose chase.

I wish to record my thanks to Mr. P. P. Singh, Mr. P. N. Gautam, and Mrs. Indira Rautela for their expert photography and flawless drawings without which my findings could never be explained in a better way.

Thanks are always due to the Glass Blowing Section for designing tools time to time required during my research work.

The financial assistance provided to me as Junior and Senior Research Fellowship to carry out my research work, by the Council of Scientific and Industrial research (CSIR) New Delhi is greatly acknowledged.

I would like to thank my seniors Dr. Anita Gangwar, Dr. Praveen Verma, Dr. Soni Gupta, and Dr. E. Mathavan for their tremendous support.
I am thankful to my dear friends Arun, Ashwani, Awadesh, Gunjan, Harsharan, Ishwar, Mahesh, Mukesh, Pankaj, Sanjay, Siddhartha, Subir Da and Vijay for their help and moral support whenever I was in need.

This note of acknowledgement remains incomplete, as without their help the thesis could not have been shaped. I am very thankful to my dear colleagues Anil, Sunil, Pankaj, Sadanand, Pradyut, Shrawan, Golok, Seema, Priyanka, Farzana, Santosh, Satish, Mahesh, Nidarshana, Mohit, Shaifali, Dola, Swapnila, Deepak, Vijay Raju, Sanjay, Rajesh, Geetika, Kiran, Deepesh, Devendra, Naveen, Nitish, Ashish, Meena, Vibha Pandey, Vibha Sankwar, Rashmi, Rajini, Sonal, Shraddha, Gaurav, Kamlendra, Preeti, Prabha, Nikita, Seema, Sapna, Jyoti, Akhilesh and Vikas with whom, working was a great pleasure.

I am also thankful to Dear Bindra, Mukesh, Lalit, Durgesh, Pramod, Paramjeet, Rajesh, Bhagirath, Ajay and Rana for their cooperation and generous assistance during my work.

I also thank Mr. Anand my Tiffin provider who afforded to offer me the food the material source of energy whenever and wherever I needed.

The entire work would never have been possible without the encouragement of my elder brother and role model Dr. V. K. Kansal. With great pleasure, I express my deep gratitude to him. His constant moral support greatly inspired me to complete my work.

Constant encouragement, motivation and care rendered by my Dear and Special mam Dr. Shakti Mehrotra is cherished deeply to whom I owe my profound sense of gratitude. She took all the pains and devoted her precious time to evaluate the whole manuscript critically and patiently.

I also wish to pay thanks with great affection and respect to all my Didi, Jijaji, Mr. Sushil Sharma who has been more than a neighbor to me and whose unconditional and direct or indirect support could make my continued stay possible at Lucknow to pursue my research work and especially to my dearest sister Ruchi whose ever smiling face, support, motivation and encouragement tremendously helped me to overcome many obstacles not only during this work but also during some personal moments of depression and frustration what I felt. Their help can not be penned down in words but only be cherished.

Somebody said “Since God can not be everywhere so he made mother”. This is absolutely true and I will forever be indebted to the almighty god for blessing me with such a nice mamma. This compilation in not just the product of my efforts rather it involves her sacrifice which is unforgettable. I pay my sincere homage to my loving papa as he was always there with me through all thick and thin. I am wholeheartedly thankful to my parent(s) for their unconditional support, love, affection and care.

At last but not the least a thesis can never be a fruit of efforts of a single person, these lines acknowledge the contribution of all those who could not be included due to the limitation of words.
