ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It is my privilege to acknowledge with a deep sense of gratitude, the invaluable help, and able guidance through constructive criticism given to me by learned and revered supervisor, Prof. Inderjeet Singh. His prudent counsel, meticulous supervision, ardent personal interest, sustained encouragement and affection have been of immeasurable help in fulfillment of this arduous task undertaken.

I deeply owe a debt of honour to Prof. Ranjit Singh Ghuman, Head, Department of Economics, for the exceptional cooperation and multifarious help. I am immensely indebted to all the faculty members of Department of Economics, Punjabi University, Patiala for their immense support and cooperation.

I am also indebted to Dr. Dharminder Singh Ubha, Principal of my esteemed institution, Khalsa College, Patiala for being so accommodating and considerate in this venture. Without his encouragement and constant support it would not have been possible for me to complete this work. I am thankful to the library staff and authorities of Indian Institute of Public Administration (IIPA), Institute of Studies in Industrial Development (ISID), National Council of Applied Economic Research (NCAER), Panjab University, Chandigarh and Punjabi University, Patiala for extending me the facilities and cooperation which proved to be of great help in pursuing this research work.

I have no words to express my sense of gratitude to my learned father Dr. Tarlochan Singh Sodhi, former Head, Department of Education and Community Service, Punjabi University, Patiala for mentally preparing me to carry on this challenging work in a methodological manner by doing my research orientation from time to time. I am also grateful to my elder sister Dr. Harleen Kaur Bhandari (New Zealand) and younger brother Dr. Sudeep Singh Sodhi (U.S.A) for providing me with genuine moral support in accomplishing this gigantic task. I feel humbly obliged to my wife Dr. Harinder Kaur Sodhi, Assistant Professor in Education, Department of Distance Education, Punjabi University, Patiala for being so understanding, supportive and patient during the entire process of this research work. The academic discussions with her proved to be of great help in improving upon the quality of this work. I will not be fair until I admit to have encroached upon a lot of time and care which was otherwise due to my beloved son Angad Singh Sodhi while being engaged in this academic pursuit.
Last but not the least, I convey my special thanks to Miss Sonu Pannu, Lecturer, Jasdev Singh Sandhu Memorial College of Education (Kauli), Patiala for providing me with timely help in computer typing of this manuscript.
