CONTENTS

PREFACE 1

I International Theme and the Formative Years of Henry James 1

II Innocence and Experience 28

III Democrats and Aristocrats 61

IV The Visionary James 84

V James the Realist 112

VI The Symbolic Significance of International Theme 136

VII The Sense of Place 157

VIII The Summing Up 180

A SELECTED BIBLIOGRAPHY 196
The international view is implied by confrontation and contrast between the two worlds and their major importance in James's fiction. The present thesis studies the different aspects of the international theme through the successive phases of his career as a novelist. I have referred to James's Autobiography as a whole not only in its focus on his six major novels, 'The Bostonians', 'The American', 'The Portrait of a Lady',...