ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Since the day I started with my research, I have worked with a great number of people whose contribution in assorted ways to the research and the making of the thesis deserves special mention. It is a pleasure to convey my gratitude to them all in my humble acknowledgment.

In the first place, I would like to record my gratitude to Dr. Aayushi Gupta for her supervision, advice, and guidance from the very early stage of this research as well as giving me extraordinary experiences throughout the work. Above all and the most needed, she provided me unflinching encouragement and support in various ways. Her remarkable ideas and passions in research inspired and enriched my growth as a student and a researcher. I am indebted to her more than she knows.

I gratefully acknowledge Santoshi Sengupta for her advice, supervision, and crucial contribution, which made her a backbone of this research and so to this thesis. Her dynamism and out-of-the-box thinking triggered and nourished my intellectual maturity that I will benefit from, for a long time to come. I am grateful to God for giving me such a lovely friend, philosopher and guide.

Many thanks go in particular to Dr. Sharmistha and Mr. Aalok Payal. I am much indebted to them for their valuable advice in discussion, supervision and furthermore, using their precious times to read this thesis and give critical comments about it. I have also benefited by advice and guidance from Dr. B.S Nagi who also always kindly granted me his time even for answering some of my unintelligent questions. He is a man of few words, a man of indisputable dignity and modesty, who gave new dimensions to my approach and shared a number of ideas which were novel and ingenious in their own way. Had it not been for his backup, his ruthless spirit of idea generation, his timely advice and tender care, this thesis would not have been feasible. The onus for the successful completion largely lies upon his aid and presence.

The sapling could have never blossomed into a flourishing tree, had the esteemed JIIT family not shown trust in me and my work. I extend my pure reverence and gratitude to Chief Operating Officer, Dr. Y. Medury; Vice Chancellor, Prof. J.P. Gupta; Director, Shri T. R. Kakkar; Members of Advisory Board Prof. S. K. Khanna and Prof. M. N. Faruqui and Dean of Academics and Research, Prof. S.L. Maskara for their valuable advice and suggestions. I would like to make a special mention of our reverend Director – JIIT sector 128, Prof. M. C. Srivastava and Dean- JIIT sector 128, Prof. Krishna Kant for showing trust in me and my work. Their unwavering motivation rekindled the flame of my efforts and inspired me to advance in my academic quest. I am also thankful to all the faculty members and the non-teaching staff of the JIIT for being very supportive in every aspect.

During this work I have collaborated with many colleagues for whom I have great regard, and I wish to extend my warmest thanks to all those who have helped me with my work. I gratefully thank Col. Ravneesh Aujla for his unbinding support and encouragement and providing me with all the facilities I needed to do my research. My warm thanks to my dear friends and colleagues Anshu, Asna, Amba Ma’am and Rakhi. Their out of the box thinking and perfectly timed suggestions helped me a lot in my progress. Very special thanks to Dr. Diwakar Yadav who helped me tremendously in collecting data for my research. I also wish to express my heartiest gratitude towards my mother-in-law, father-in-law, parents, brothers and sisters. Without their support, understanding and motivation, this work of mine could not be framed in this thesis.

And not to miss the everlasting companionship of the two most important people in my life, my husband, Anurag and my son, Varun. My husband always energized me and gave me all the support and strength I needed. He made me believe in myself and invigorated a sense of responsibility in me towards my Ph. D. At most difficult times, he always said when the things get tough, the tough gets going. The innocent look on my son’s face, his energy, his undying devotion and everlasting love gave me zealous inspiration to attain the unattainable heights of accomplishment. I would simply say when he touched my hand; I knew, I could touch the sky.

The piece of acknowledgement would be unfinished without referring to the blessings of the Almighty, the Supreme Power who always guides my soul in the quest of this knowledge.

I apologize for any omissions left in the thesis.
