ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I gratefully acknowledge the valuable help and advice I have received and continue to receive from my teacher and guide Dr. A. Nirmalkumar, Professor and Head of the Department of Electrical and Electronics Engineering, Info Institute of Engineering and Technology, Coimbatore. It was his continuous encouragement that has enabled this work to reach its present form and state.

I profusely thank Dr. Jovitha Jerome, Professor and Head, Department of Instrumentation and Control Engineering, P. S. G College of Technology, Coimbatore and Dr. T. Manigandan, Principal, P. A. College of Engineering & Technology, Pollachi, for their useful and thought provoking suggestions during the research work.

My thanks are also due to Dr. L. Lakshminarasimman, Professor, Annamalai University, Chidambaram and Dr. S. Thiruvenkadam, Professor, Department of Electrical and Electronics Engineering, P. A. College of Engineering & Technology, Pollachi, for providing me the necessary help for the completion of this work. I am also thankful to all my colleagues who have encouraged me at every stage during the course of this study.

I attribute the completion of this research to the dedicated prayers, moral support, love and affection of my mother Mrs. M. Mareeswari, my wife Mrs. S. Shanmugapiya, and other family members who have been a major source of strength and motivation.

Last but not the least I thank the Almighty for giving me enough mental strength and support to complete the research work within the period.
