Acknowledgements

This work is a combined effort of many important people from various institutions and though it is not possible to thank each one of them personally, I am grateful to all of them individually. In the process of interaction with them I learnt a lot about women empowerment and what exactly it is all about.

I wish to express my sincere and heartfelt thanks to Dr. N. Panchanatham, Professor and Head, Department of Business Administration, Annamalai University, Chidambaram, my research supervisor, who had given me lot of freedom, encouragement, motivation, proper guidance and support. His constructive criticisms and suggestions enabled me to complete my research and bring out this thesis in its best form.

My special thanks to Dr. AL. Malliga, Assistant Professor, Department of Management Studies, Mother Theresa Women’s University, Kodaikanal, for her unconditional support and guidance during the course of my study.

I am thankful to Dr. A. Venkatraman, Former Principal of Rajiv Gandhi College of Engineering and Technology, Pondicherry for having encouraged me to pursue my Ph.D programme.

I wish to acknowledge the real discussions about methodology and concepts with my peer friends Mrs. R. Kayatry Sabitha, Proprietor and Managing director, Radiant Knowledge Services, Pondicherry, Ms. A. Radjesvary, Assistant Professor, Acharya College of Arts and Science, Villianur, Pondicherry and Mrs. G. Nirmala, Assistant Professor, Rajiv Gandhi College of Engineering and Technology, Pondicherry.
I wish to gratefulness to and special thanks to my dear friend Mrs. R. Kayatry Sabitha, Proprietor and Managing director, Radiant Knowledge Services, Pondicherry for having checked the language in this thesis.

I wish to thank all my superiors and subordinates for having helped me in many ways.

I give special acknowledgement to all the organizations, institutions and interviewees I had worked with. Without them I would not have obtained all at interesting empirical data, which was important for my research.

I wish to express my sincere and deepest gratitude to my parents Mr. V. James Daniel, Assistant Professor (retired), Thiru Kolangiappar Govt. Arts College, Vridhachallam and Mrs. J. E. Reeda Vasanthi Amarbali, Headmistress (retired), NLC Boys Higher Secondary School, Neyveli who believed in me so much in the value of education and for having invested their time and money a lot for my education, because of which I am what I am today.

My sincere thanks also goes out to my Father-in-law, Mr. D. Navamoni Abel, Personnel Manager (retired), Neyveli Lignite Corporation, Neyveli and Mother-in-law, Mrs. A. Leela Koilpillai (retired), Teacher, NLC Middle School, Neyveli, for having sacrificed much of their time and compromising on many of their daily schedules for my sake and having been a corner stone in my research completion.

I also wish to thank my brother Mr. J. Eugene, Assistant Professor, Institute of Hotel Management, Taramani, Chennai and my sister – in – law Mrs. D. Anita Eugene,
Assistant Professor, SRM University, Chennai, for their direct and indirect support during the course of my study.

My gratitude and love to my beloved husband Dr. N. Gideon Dharmakkan Sathyaraj, Deputy Director, Pondicherry Aids Control Society (PACS) for his solidarity, patience and unconditional support shown throughout the period of this research study.

My deepest gratitude and love to my daughter Miss. G. Johanna Sharon and my son Master. G. Jonathan Steve for tolerating my absence when I was busy with my Ph.D seminar classes, data collection and when I was working on my research thesis. They were patient and very understanding even at this tender age and this proved to be an immense source of inspiration, motivation and determination for me towards completion of this research work.

Juno Jasmine. J