ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It gives me great pleasure to express my gratitude and sincere thanks to all those who helped me in several ways in completing this work. I owe a special debt of gratitude to my Research Supervisor Dr. K.S.S. Seshan for his constant advice, encouragement, critical engagement and help without which the thesis could not have been completed. I am grateful to him for being very supportive throughout the six years that I have spent as a Ph.D. Student.

My special thanks are due to Mrs. Jandhyala Kameshwari, who was responsible for introducing me to the field of research. I express my thanks to Prof. Aloka Parasher Sen, Head of the History Department and all the faculty members of the Department of History for their encouragement. I also thank Prof. V.V.N.Somayajulu, Dean, School of Social Sciences for extending the necessary help.

My thanks are due to the University Grants Commission, for awarding me Junior Research Fellowship (J.R.F.) which enabled me to complete this study.

I am thankful to the Directors, and Staff of the Andhra Pradesh State Archives, Hyderabad, The Tamilnadu State Archives, Chennai, Nehru Memorial and Museum Library, New Delhi. I also thank, the Librarians and the Staff of Indira Gandhi Memorial Library, University of Hyderabad, Hyderabad; Jawaharlal Nehru University Library, New Delhi; Indian Council of Historical Research, Library, New Delhi; Gautami Library Rajahmundry; Saraswati Vidya Mandir, Vetapalem; Osmania University Library, Hyderabad; and City Central Library, Hyderabad, for making available the required source material for my study.

Grateful acknowledgements are due to Mudragada Padmanabham, Rama Sesh Chalam, Galla Subramanyam, K.Nageswara Rao, M.V.Rao, K.Rama Rao, Achanta Venkata Ratnam Naidu, Miriyala Venkata Rao, Kapunadu president, R. Swamy Naidu for granting me the interviews during my fieldwork and thus giving new insights into my understanding of the subject.
I also had several occasions to meet and discuss with M. Muni Ratnam, Dy. Director, Andhra Pradesh State Archives, Dr. P. Krishna Murthy, Incharge of A.P. State Secretariat Repository and John Akki Das of Andhra Pradesh State Archives for whom I owe a great debt of gratitude.

I was immensely benefited by the long academic discussion I had with friends like Davuluri, Mustafa, Y. N. S. Choudary, Chinta, Ramboo, R. P. R., Sudhakar, Venugopal, Anil Kumar, and S. V. Srinivas.

I also thank for the Department staff Niranjan Reddy, Muralidharan, Balaswamy, Prasad, Yadagiri, Deleep, Das, Balaram for extending help at various stages.

I am also thankful for Anjaneyulu, Raju, Venu, Sekhar, Murali, Tilak, Rajesh, Avinash, Kalia, Khan, Rama Krishna for their help.

It is my duty to place on record my deep sense of gratitude to my family members whose abundant love and affection went a long way in helping me to complete this work. I thank my wife M. Harathi for all the trouble she took to ensure that my work was not interrupted. My thanks are also due to T. Mohan Rao for the immaculate computer work of the drafts of the thesis. I dedicate this work to my brother late. M. Prabhakara Rao who has been a source of inspiration throughout my educational career.
