ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I express my indebtedness to Prof Vidya Rao, School of Social Work, Tata Institute of Social Sciences, for her valuable and scholarly guidance, help and constant support throughout the research work and in the preparation of the thesis. I owe my sincere gratitude to her for the inspiration and encouragement given to me at each and every stage of this research program. Her meticulous and pain-staking perusal of the study and her flair for detail contributed in a large measure towards the successful completion of my study.

I am highly grateful to Dr. Jacob Aikara, Professor Rajagiri College of Social Sciences, Cochin, for his support and help in the formulation of my work. I also extend my sincere gratitude to Dr. Lakshmi Devi Menon, Professor Department of English, St. Teresa’s College Cochin, for her help in refining the language of the study. I express my sincere thanks to Mrs. Nisha Sajith, Vedapuri Gardens, Tripunithura, Cochin, for her support, encouragement and help in preparation of the thesis.

My thanks are also due to all the members of the faculty and staff of the Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Mumbai for the support and encouragement extended to me.
I am thankful to the President, members of the Guruvayoor Devaswom Managing Committee and the executives, staff and temple employees of the Guruvayoor Devaswom for their co-operation in furnishing the information needed for the conduct of the study.

My sincere thanks to the librarians and other staff of the Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Mumbai, Center for Development Studies & Kerala University, Thiruvananthapuram, Sree Venkiteswara University, Thirupati, Cochin University of Science and Technology, Cochin and Calicut University, Kozhikode.

Last but not the least this research program was completed mainly because of the moral support and encouragement extended by my wife and children.
