ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The successful completion of this study is made possible by the most unreserved and unstinted support and co-operation extended to me by my research supervisor and guide Dr. R. Vasanthagopal, Reader, Department of Commerce and Research Centre, The Cochin College, Kochi. I am very much obliged to him for the valuable guidance and tremendous help I received at every stage of my study. He has been a good source of inspiration and encouragement to me throughout the course of the research work. His thought provoking ideas, constructive comments and valuable suggestions have played very outstanding and functional roles in the successful and timely completion of my work.

I must recall with gratitude, the co-operation extended by the Management of S.H. College, Thevara, who kindly granted me permission to carry out my study as a part time research scholar. I am very much indebted to Rev. Fr. A.J Saviance, Principal, S.H. College, Thevara, for his constant encouragement and support in carrying out this study successfully. I am thankful to all my colleagues in S.H. College, especially those in the Department of Commerce for their encouragement during the period of my research work.

I would very much appreciate and sincerely acknowledge Shri. Mathew Vargheese, Principal and Shri.M. Rajagopal (Principal in charge), The Cochin College, Kochi, for providing the necessary help in the successful completion of this work. I am very much grateful to Sri. Roy Joseph, Assistant Director-Statistics, Spices Board, and Sri. K.A. Josekutty, Library Information Officer, Spices Board, who helped me immensely by supplying the relevant data for the study. I am also indebted to the officials of the Cochin Chamber of Commerce,
W. Island, Kochi, for the cooperation extended to me in the collection of import and export statistics.

I express my deep sense of gratitude to the spices cultivators and spices traders whom I interviewed, staff of the Cardamom Growers Association, Vandanmedu and the officials of Wynad Social Service Society, Mananthavadi, for the valuable information given and opinions expressed. I also thank Kumari. Chinnu and Kumari Shari, of the Computer Center, Koovappadam, Fort Kochi, for the speedy and accurate typing of my thesis.

I wish to place on record my sincere thanks to Prof. John Francis, Head of the Department of English, S.H. College, Thevara and Prof. T. T. Joseph, former Head of the Department of English, S.H. College, for going through the manuscript of my thesis.

I also express my sincere and deep sense of gratitude to my parents, friends and relatives who helped me in so many ways.

And finally I am thankful to my wife Daisamma, daughter Neethu and sons Neethin and Nirmal who had to forego a large number of affectionate moments because of my involvement in this research work.

THOMAS T.P.