ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

With the blessings of God and a sense of humble contribution towards the noble field of Education, I sincerely and whole heartedly would like to show my gratitude towards my Guide Dr. Mridula Ranade without whose support and guidance at every stage of my research titled “A comparative study of the effectiveness of Multiple Intelligences -based teaching and Non-Multiple Intelligences -based teaching of some units of history for std. VI”, would be incomplete in content and context.

Words fall short to convey my feelings and emotions to thank the following people in their help rendered in preparing this document:

Dr. Mridula Ranade whose constructive comments corrected the content matter and my thought process towards education.

Mrs. Sapkal, headmistress of Sinhagad springdale school, Narhe for permitting me to conduct my programmes and in using the facilities of their school.

Mrs. Verma, Mrs. Murari and the entire library staff of S.N.D.T. women’s university, Pune for their timely help and guidance.

My friends, Mrs. Pallavi Vartak and Mrs. Sophia Gaikwad for the moral support and valuable comments from time to time.

I thank my family especially my parents, in-laws, husband and daughters, Miss. Kshitija and Miss. Isha for their patience and cooperation in the course of preparing this document. A special mention would have to be made here to Isha who composed all the poems in this piece of work and Kshitija who scientifically analyzed the themes.

With due humility this acknowledgement would not be complete without expressing my gratitude to any one whose mention has been left out from this page accidently.
