ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I wish to record my gratitude for the support extended by a large number of persons and institutions which has helped me to bring this thesis to fruition.

Although an acknowledgement may seem very formal, it is my bounden duty to record here, my deep sense of gratitude to my supervisor, Dr. Ranee Vedamuthu, Professor and Head, Department of Architecture, Anna University, Chennai, but for whose personal interest and encouragement, this thesis would not have been what it is.

My sincere thanks are also due to my Doctoral committee members, Dr. Ashalatha Thampuran and Dr. Srivathsan, for their valuable suggestions and guidance.

I am deeply indebted to Dr. Jeyaraj, Conservation Chemist, Government Museum, Chennai, Mr. Satyamoorthi, Former Superintending Archaeologist, Archaeological Survey of India, Chennai, Mr. Chandrasekar, Conservation Assistant, Kanchipuram circle, and Mr. Ranjit, for their spontaneous assistance and co-operation, which have helped me greatly in my field study and Dr. Parvathi, for her support in language correction.

I am immensely grateful to my friends for their unstinted moral support and kindness.

Last, but not the least, I wish to thank the members of my family, not only for their encouragement and support, but also for their patience in enduring all the deprivation caused, during the preparation of this thesis.
