ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is indeed my pleasure to acknowledge my indebtedness to all those persons who helped me in the completion of my work. At the very outset I acknowledge my greatfulness to Dr. G. Adhikary, Principal, D.K. Girls College Mirza, Kamrup, Assam who has been so kind to me to supervise my work despite his heavy academic and administrative workload. It was only his guidance and encouragement that led and inspired me to complete the work properly.

I offer my indebtedness to Dipankar Banerjee for inspiring me to undertake the research project although the task could not be finished because of his sudden demise.

Secondly I acknowledge my indebtedness to the family members of Ambiakgiri Roy Chowdhury, especially Sri Bhagagiri Roy Chowdhury, Suchibratat Roy Chowdhury, Smt. Jugabrata Dutta and Aparajita Dutta for providing me with all valuable private collections that I have utilized in preparing my thesis. I am particularly grateful to some of my colleagues for instance, Md. Riaz Uddin Ansari, Dr. Hari Prasad Baruah, Sri Arindam Kumar Deka, Mrs. Pallavi Baruah for their help and co-operation.

Besides while collecting the research material I had to approach many of the educational and research institutions, including the University of Gauhati, the Department of Historical and Antiquarian studies, state government archive, research section, Directorate of Library services Assam, Nanda Talukdar trust, Media Trust and a number of individuals. I acknowledge my gratefulness to all these institutions and individuals. I offer my sincere thanks to Smt. Ruby Das Baruah for helping me out whenever it is required.

I offer my sincere regards to the faculties of the Department of History, Gauhati University for their valuable advice and suggestions.
I offer my sincere thanks to the staff of the Academic branch (Ph.D. section) Gauhati University. I also acknowledge the service of Biren Dhar for typing out draft copy of my thesis.

Thanks are also due to my sisters and brothers Babu, Dipika and Swapna who helped me a lot in working out my thesis.

Lastly I am very much grateful to the authority of the L.O.K.D. College for allowing me to pursue this study.
