ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The dreams of doing a doctoral study in Broadcast Journalism were in my mind ever since I completed Master in Mass communication in 2012. Later, the same turned into a reality when my Supervisor Dr. Raghavendra Mishra Co. Supervisor Dr. Paromita Das encouraged and inspired me to do thesis in this field of media. His guidance also helped me to give a practical shape to his reality. I feel I was extremely fortunate to get him as my supervisor.

I express my deep gratitude to Dr. Raghavendra Mishra and Dr. Paromita Das for his inspiring guidance, as without which the study would not have been possible. Dr. Raghavendra Mishra and Dr. Paromita Das with his vast experiences and deep insights into social research, always guided me to carry my studies on right tracks. His en-lighted criticism and pinpointing of my errors and mistakes apart from openness made me confident to delve deep into the topic in which no much academic work were undertaken so far. The present work is an empirical one mainly based on the secondary date sources.
